BIG RIOTS IN ALEXANDRIA

Two Rioters Killed, 10 In-Nationalist Demonstration—Against British Commission Headed by Milner

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Saturday, Oct. 25.—Two rioters were killed and ten others injured, and 27 policemen were hurt in a serious nationalist demonstration yesterday. The trouble arose when the police attempted to suppress a peaceable demonstration such as have recently been a weekly feature of political activity in Alexandria. Sticks, stones, bottles and police batons were first used. The arrival of the governor of Alexandria restored order for a time. Then two motor lorries with troops appeared on the scene and eventually shots were fired at the crowd.

Today there was some recurrence of the trouble, at the harbor side, but it was of a comparatively minor character.

CAIRO, Egypt, Saturday, Oct. 25.—Shouts of "we don't want the Milner commission" interrupted a band playing "God Save the King" at the public gardens yesterday, giving the signal for a nationalist demonstration.

The trouble was quelled by the authorities, who placed a number of students under arrest.

It was announced in London some time ago that the government was considering sending to Egypt a special commission headed by Viscount Milner, secretary for the colonies, in order to ascertain what changes were necessary in the constitution of the protectorate.

DRACUT MURDER CASE

Man Brought Here From Ipswich to Be Interrogated is Released

Leon Taber, 29 years old, a former slubber tender at the Massachusetts mills, where he worked in the same room with Mrs. Mary Fortuna, whose murder has presented one of the most mysterious problems in state police history, was brought to Lowell from Ipswich last night and questioned as to his knowledge of the woman and the crime. This morning, according to the police, he was allowed to go.

No reason for his detention has been offered by the police, but it is known that Taber left the employ of the Lowell mill on Sept. 6, the day following the one on which the woman is supposed to have been murdered, and that he did not work during some days of that week, and it is believed that these facts caused the investigation.

Taber, who is said to be Polish, was taken into custody in Ipswich yesterday afternoon by the police of that town and later turned over to Chief William H. Cullinan of the Dracut department, who brought the man to this city.

The Massachusetts overseer in charge of the department in which Mrs. Fortuna worked, has said that at no time does he recall seeing her in conversation with any of the employees and that habitually she was quiet and of a reserved disposition.

It is now believed that the police are investigating the rumor that a man was seen at one time, following the date of Sept. 5, coming from the woods near the spot where the body afterwards was found, carrying a bundle of clothes.

EXPLOSIONS SET FOR NEXT SPRING

Six Held in Chicago in Connection With Big Radical Conspiracy

Plans for Series of Bomb Explosions Found in Raids

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28.—Discovery of a radical plot to spread terror throughout the nation by another series of bomb explosions next spring, was announced by the police here today, following the arrest last night of five men and one woman suspected of having planned the destruction of the Central police station.

Believing they are members of an anarchist circle that has been working in more than 100 cities, the police questioned the group all night in an effort to learn details of their plans or the extent of their organization.

The arrests were made in four simultaneous raids, following information that an attempt was to be made to bomb the Central police station here. One of the men is believed by the police to have been active in bombing Mayor Harry L. Davis' home June 2 last.

With the prisoners the police captured a large quantity of high explosives, one complete bomb, several incomplete bombs, a number of automatic pistols, a supply of ammunition and much anarchist literature.

The police believe the arrests will lead to apprehension in other cities in connection with the country-wide bomb outrages which occurred last May and June.

Detectives were sent from here last night and today to cooperate with police in other cities.

FILLING CELLARS ON AUDITORIUM SITE

Anybody having clean refuse to dispose of may assist very materially in the erection of the magnificent public auditorium of which Lowell some day will be very proud by dumping the refuse into the cellars on the auditorium site. The mills of the city, the Electric Light corporation and others have been asked to contribute their clinders and ashes and they are responding nobly. The city health department, too, by instruction from the mayor, is adding what is fit for the purpose of city refuse and with everybody lending a hand it ought not to take very long to fill the cellars.

The cellars on the left hand side where the walks are going to be are the only ones to be filled at the present time, and persons having any dumping to do will please bear this in mind. The filling of these cellars without cost will be of great assistance to the auditorium commission and will mean in fact a saving of several thousands of dollars.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—Ex-

While it originally was planned to hold only a meeting of the executive board of the organization at this time, in view of the demand of President Wilson last Saturday that the strike order be rescinded, Acting President John L. Lewis broadened the scope of the conference. As a consequence 25 district presidents of the mine workers, the full scale committee composed of 32 members and the board of executives, comprising a representative from each of the 25 districts, are in attendance. MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 28.—The defense abruptly rested its case today in the trial of George A. Long on the charge of murdering Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell in Barre on the night of May 3 last, whereupon the state announced that it rested also and that there would be no rebuttal. Arguments were started by State Attorney Davis at 9:40 and it seems probable that the case will be in the hands of the jury late tonight or tomorrow morning.

GARFIELD CALLED TO WHITE HOUSE

Federal Fuel Administrator
Discusses Coal Strike With
Sec. Tumulty

Contented Settlement Will Be Reached Without Walkout of Miners

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Federal Fuel Administrator Harry A. Garfield discussed the threatened strike of bituminous coal miners today with Secretary Tumulty at the White House. He was summoned here from Williams college, of which he is president.

Dr. Garfield, who still has authority to function as fuel administrator, said he was in close touch with the strike situation and expressed confidence that a settlement would be reached without a walkout of the miners.

Mr. Garfield would not discuss his conference with Mr. Tumulty, but his visit to the White House revived suggestions that the fuel administration might again be called into existence to exercise the war time control over fuel provided for in the Lever act.

While actively serving as administrator, Dr. Garfield was instrumental in bringing about the so-called Washington wage agreement, which expired April 1, 1920, and which it has been contended would be violated if the miners strike.

LONG ENDS TESTIMONY

Leaves Washington After Hearing on War Profits—
Graham Fails to Retract

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, failed to secure yesterday from Representative Graham, chairman of the house special investigating committee, a retraction of the statement accredited to him in a published interview that the R. H. Long company had made "exorbitant profits" as a result of war contracts.

At intervals during the day, whenever an opening appeared, Mr. Long would pound out this query to the Illinois republican representative. In the early hours Mr. Long's meins were very serious, and the manner in which Chairman Graham brushed the inquiry aside as irrelevant at the moment was alike severe and impatient. But as the hours wore on and the mellowing influence of association began to make itself felt, both the candidate and the chairman displayed less temper until at the last Mr. Long's question was almost playfully put and the chairman grinned good naturedly when he replied that the question still could not be answered until the committee had reached some conclusion as a result of the hearings.

This change of attitude on the part of Chairman Graham might have been due to Mr. Long's apology, when he took the stand yesterday morning, for the severity of the language in the telegram which was sent from the Long headquarters over his signature to Mr. Graham. This message so incensed Mr. Graham that he refused to examine Mr. Long then, but yesterday the chairman did about all of the questioning.

The examination yesterday was largely technical and related to charges for facilities, settlements of incomplete contracts and matters of book-keeping. Mr. Long constantly reiterated his statement that he gave the government better prices than had any of his competitors and that his settlements also were at a law-or cost to the government than any other contractors in the country. Mr. Long answered all questions promptly in relation to his contracts and the settlement of his claims. The matters under examination were so involved that it appeared to be difficult for members of the committee to make much headway.

Mr. Long presented a request to the committee that they ask the war claims board to present a statement showing the percentage of cost for settling the R. H. Long contracts as compared with competitors and with contractors of other divisions; and also a statement showing the prices of the R. H. Long contracts as compared with all competitors. This statement, Mr. Long contended, would show that the R. H. Long company was the lowest contractor for the government in the United States, both for prices of articles and cost of settlements.

One of Mr. Long's favorite phrases during his examination was that his company did not get in its settlements with the government on canceled contracts "one-half its losses."

"From what you say, Mr. Long, I judge you were fast staggering toward bankruptcy," said Representative Graham.

"Don't expect to get anything out of that except curses and abuse for trying to do your duty," commented the chairman.

In the course of the day's examination, Mr. Long said his war profits were less than 5 per cent. on the aggregate of his war contracts, which approximated about $35,000,000. Much time was occupied by the committee attempting to get from Mr. Long information relative to his claims for "special facilities." It developed that these were charged pro rata to the various contracts.

Mr. Long and his son left last night for Boston.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Donat J. Marchand and Miss Sylvia Boudreau were married this morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Joseph's rectory at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, O.M.I. The bride wore a dark blue travelling suit and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her father, Mr. Eugene Boudreau, while the bridegroom was attended by his uncle, Mr. Joseph J. Cinqmars. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and later the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Providence, R. I.; Hartford, Conn., and New York. Upon their return they will make their home in Lynn.

Lambert-Guilmette
The marriage of Mr. William H. Lambert of 12 Race street and Miss Alice Guilmette of 5 Grand street took place last evening at 5:30 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Leon Lamothe, O.M.I. The bride wore a taupe travelling suit with picture hat to match and carried bridal roses. She was given away by her father, Mr. Zephyr Guilmette, while the groom's witness was his brother, Mr. George Lambert. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and later in the evening the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, St. Anne de Beaupre and Quebec. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

Pure Food Exhibition

tended and were cordially received by the store managers and the many demonstrators stationed about the store, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

In quality, at least, the exhibit easily ranked with the annual pure food show at Mechanics building, Boston, and limited floor space alone restricted the quantity. Samples were distributed freely, in fact, nothing could be purchased in the store, which remained open on its usual half-holiday just for the purpose of presenting its new departments to the paying public of Lowell.

The Fairbairn company takes justifiable pride in its latest development and not a modern feature has been overlooked in the entire equipment. From the bake ovens in the basement to the attractive show cases on the main floor, everything is arranged according to the most up-to-date ideas. Purity is the watchword and exceeding care has been taken to alleviate all possible barriers which might disturb the rapid, economical and efficient production of table delicacies and necessities.

Perhaps the new steam tables, by which the store will be able to offer hot lunches to take out at an instant's notice, received the closest inspection by the large crowds this afternoon. The tables are similar to those installed in large Boston delicatessen establishments and are thoroughly modern. The show cases in the new department were completely filled with tempting samples of the baker's art and received instant commendation.

The employees of the store did not limit their tours of inspection to the new department, but took many people through the meat-cutting rooms and through the bake shop in the basement. Everything in the store was there to be inspected and in such shipshape order as to submit to the most careful scrutiny and criticism.

Markham's orchestra played during the afternoon, while Decorator Chas. Young was present to receive many compliments upon his decorative work. Forty-five demonstrations were given, with the following firms and aron the subject of shortbread, so popular with Scotch and English folk.

"But, good as was the old-fashioned kind," remarked our hostess, "it was so extremely rich that the heavy taste lingered long after eating."

"Well," said Betsey, "there's nothing so good as a little of the new kind."

"Yes," said the beauty of all, "but do not 'sate' it." That National Biscuit Company products is because there is just enough richness—they are always ready—night and day—and always fresh. Their ready-ness and freshness, however, are not the only features that recommend them. A still greater consideration is the fact that National Biscuit Company products obviate the necessity for mixing and baking at home. And any woman who has spent a little of her time in the kitchen knows the comfort, efficiency and economy of buying these uniformly good, ready-to-serve products."

Shortbread may have come over on the Mayflower, but it remained for America to take out the over-richness and give it a new flavor, in mealy, crumbly, tender, ready-to-serve biscuit means never being without them. The name LORNA DOONE is on every biscuit.

THE TRUTH

You are being asked by the deserting policemen of the city of Boston to believe that they were justified in doing what President Wilson called their "crime against civilization."

They plead with you that a strike was their only way to secure relief from what they call "intolerable conditions" and "an autocratic commissioner."

ASK THEM why their Grievance Committee wrote the following letter of appreciation to Commissioner Curtis on July 16th last—just six weeks before they struck:

"Dear Sir: We take this opportunity to thank you sincerely in behalf of ALL THE PATROLMEN OF THE BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT for the MANY VITAL AND IMPORTANT BENEFITS obtained and which were championed by you, including the non-contributory pension, corrections in the rule relating to unnecessary reporting by night men on their off days and excuses from different roll calls. WE DESIRE TO EXPRESS OUR DEEP SENSE OF GRATITUDE FOR YOUR EFFORTS IN OUR BEHALF IN OBTAINING THE INCREASE IN SALARY. With assurance of OUR HIGHEST CONSIDERATIONS AND ESTEEM, we remain * * *

Gov. Sproul Lauds His Stand
in Police Strike—Says Radicals Beset Unions

NORTH ADAMS, Oct. 29.—The labor unions of the country are beset by radicals who would destroy them to clear the way to a class revolution, said Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania last night. The governor was speaking at a rally in the interests of Governor Calvin Coolidge's campaign for re-election. He said Governor Coolidge's steps to "uphold the sovereignty of the state" in the strike of Boston policemen, which, he said, in its relation to the future safety and well-being of the people of this republic, was as important as the affair at Concord and Lexington.

"Labor," said Governor Sproul, "as represented by the patriotic American workmen who, under sane and progressive leadership, have attained so much for themselves and have served the nation so well, is engaged in a battle to preserve its organizations from the radicals who would destroy them because they are in the way of a class revolution."

"It would suit these destructionists exactly if they could get hold of the forces of public safety in this country. The municipal governments, then the state governments and finally the national government would then be easy game. Upheaval and disorder are their opportunity. A few thousand organized out-throats could terrorize the nation if the forces of protection were paralyzed. The policemen in Boston were the victims of the plan. They had no idea of being used to further a scheme of national destruction. The strike there was carried out in innocence of any wrong doing, I firmly believe, but I am just as thoroughly convinced that it was concealed in villainy and was to be a part of a general scheme to paralyze the power of the government to protect itself. It is to the eternal credit of Massachusetts that you met the issue as you did."

INTERNATIONAL LABOR
CONFERENCE OPENS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—More than 30 nations were represented here today at the opening of the International labor conference created by the treaty of Versailles for the improvement and standardization of labor conditions throughout the world.

In opening the conference at noon, Secretary Wilson said he would designate the assembly as the "conference in the process of being organized" and by this interpretation he believes he abides by his contention that only those states which have ratified the treaty can participate in the official conference.

The program for today as outlined by the organizing committee called for addresses by Secretary Wilson and John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union; the report of Arthur Fontaine of France, chairman of the committee and organization of the assembly. Officers will be elected tomorrow.

The first question to come before the conference when it settles down for business on Friday will be the eight-hour day, and the 48-hour week.

DEATHS

CLARK—Mrs. Josephine M. Clark, widow of W. L. Clark of Lowell, died suddenly yesterday at the home of her son, Francis R. Clark, of West Medford, aged 89 years. She leaves two sons, Francis R. and Charles S. Clark, the latter superintendent of schools in Somerville. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were both charter members of the Central M. E. church in John street.

HEALEY—Mrs. Marion Hunt Healey, well known and beloved by many residents of Belvidere, died in Minneapolis at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Judge Smith, Oct. 23. She was nearly 56 years of age. She was the last surviving member of the Hunt family, who began life at the old homestead on Clark street, at the city.

HALE—Haymond, aged 8 months, infant son of Sebastian and Evelyn Hale, died this morning at the home of his parents, 200 Cheever street. Burial took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers Amodeo Archambault & Sons.

CONNORS—Walter, aged 10 months and 8 days, infant son of Norman and Ella Connors, died this morning at the home of his parents, 44 Lilley avenue. Burial took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers Jos. Albert.

FUNERALS

WARD—The funeral of Mary J. (Grant) Ward took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertakers C. H. Molloy's sons, Market street. Burial was in the family lot in Edgewood cemetery, at 1 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. N. W. Matthews, pastor of the Gorham street P. M. church. The funeral was well attended.

TALLY—The funeral of John Tally took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from his home, 11 Coburn court, Pawtucketville, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. J. W. Matthews, pastor of the St. Columba's church where, at 9 o'clock, a funeral mass was sung by Rev. Francis McNeil. The choir, under the direction of Miss Katherine W. Matthews, rendered the Gregorian mass, the solos being sustained by Miss Frances "Tiche" Miss Wholey presiding at the organ. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes and of spiritual bouquets. The bearers were Michael and John Tally, John Miskell, Timothy Carney, Dennis Carney and John Tally. At the grave Rev. W. Matthews read the committal prayers and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, in charge of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FUNERAL NOTICES

LOFFUS—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen T. Loffus will take place Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from her home, 8 Gold street. A solemn high funeral mass will be sung at St. Patrick's cemetery, in charge of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons. Burial at 10 o'clock. The grave Rev. W. Matthews, pastor of the St. Columba's church, will officiate. The funeral services will be held at the Edison cemetery chapel, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertaker William C. Brown.

FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

Mayor Perry D. Thompson has requested the local Butchers and Grocers' association to elect one of their members at their regular meeting this evening to serve as one of the five members of Lowell's fair price committee. As soon as a representative is chosen to represent the retail dealers, the mayor will announce the rest of the committee.

OPEN SEASON FOR PROFITTEERS

The profiteering act of England which became law on Aug. 19, authorizes the board of trade to issue orders applying the new law to any article in common use by the public, or materials and equipment used in producing such articles.

The board of trade is proceeding by organizing a central committee which will concern itself with costs and profits of production and distribution, and local committees, which will hear complaints against retailers, investigate, dismiss, or declare the prices that would be fair. From the local committees there will be appeal to special tribunals.

Clearly, the board of trade will have some strenuous experiences. There is the farmer's wife in the north of England whose door-yard commands the only approach to a waterfall which at

LOWELL ON THE WATER
WAGON AGAIN

Lowell is "dry" again today! After holding sway for nearly three months, it of 275 took the count last evening when, as a result of the passage of the prohibition enforcement bill making it unlawful to sell or manufacture any beverage containing over one-half of one per cent alcohol, local saloon-keepers closed their establishments until such time as the peace treaty shall be signed and the ban on wet goods possibly removed by presidential proclamation.

No orgies accompanied the demise of "275" in Lowell last evening. Business at the local bars showed no change from the usual, in fact the greater majority of the patrons who lined themselves up at the various bars seemed perfectly unaware that last night was indeed the "last night" for some time, and perhaps for all time, if the ban is not lifted before the day of January 11 when constitutional prohibition becomes effective.

A few liquor dealers, apparently unaware of the action of the senate yesterday afternoon when it passed the "dry" bill over the president's veto, opened for business as usual today, but soon closed their doors after being informed of the penalty of a prison sentence and heavy fine attached to keeping open. At noon today, so far as was known, there were no saloons or hotels in the city dispensing the 2.75 per cent beverage.

Although some dealers had stated their intentions of remaining open for the sale of "half per cent," the lightest featherweight the "wets" have placed in the ring, none was offering this first-thrower to patrons today as far as is known. The majority of the proprietors of these parlors express the opinion that as a drink "half percent" is inferior to a glass of tonic and would offer no profits to its sponsors.

Some of the saloon keepers, anticipating that the ban will be lifted by President Wilson within a short time plan to keep their operating forces intact and will spend the time between now and that future date in rearranging their stock and cleaning up generally. Others have looked up tight for the present.

The tourists toll at the rate of four cents a head. This year she asks six. When asked the reason, she replied, "Waterfalls is gone up."—The Nation's Business for November.

FAMO Stops Seborrhea the Dandruff
Disease

No other hair remedy even remotely resembles FAMO.

FAMO kills the dandruff germ and stops the unhealthy flow from the sebaceous glands.

Every ingredient in FAMO is well known to physicians.

Let none of these ingredients were ever before applied to saving the hair.

Science perfected FAMO in one of the oldest pharmaceutical houses in Detroit—famous for its laboratories which supply physicians all over the world with medical goods.

FAMO not only kills the seborrhea microbe but it makes the scalp and hair as clean as that of a baby.

It ends all itching of the scalp.

Even where baldness has already appeared (unless the hair roots are absolutely dead) FAMO will encourage and stimulate the growth of new hair.

Many women say FAMO has caused their hair to grow from four to six inches.

FAMO retards grayness and strengthens the natural color. It contains no alcohol to dry the scalp and produce gray hairs.

It makes the hair luxuriant and lustrous and if there is a tendency to wavyness FAMO intensifies it.

FAMO should be used by every member of the family.

It can safely be used on the baby as there is not a single ingredient that will harm the tenderest scalp.

Used on the head of growing children it will make the most unruly hair soft and easy to comb.

Young women find FAMO a peculiarly fine hair dressing. It makes the hair fluffy and full of life.

If you have dandruff you have seborrhea.

Seborrhea is as dangerous to the hair as pyorrhea is to the teeth.

So if you have dandruff not a day should be lost in applying FAMO.

Not until FAMO has cleared your scalp of the deadly dandruff bacilli is your hair safe.

Even if you have no dandruff now you should use FAMO so that dandruff will be kept away and to make the hair fluffy and beautiful.

FAMO comes in two sizes—35 cents, and an extra large bottle at $1. It is sold at all toilet goods counters.

Applications at all the better barber shops. Your money will be refunded if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrheic secretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

Hold Strikers for Carrying Weapons

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The textile strikers in this city did not attempt to prevent the workers from entering the mills this morning although a large number of the strikers paraded through the mill section. Several were arrested for carrying weapons. It is said that about 40 of the strikers were wounded in yesterday's fighting, but only five of them were taken away by their friends. The five who are in the hospital will probably recover.

You can have nice, thick hair, too.

KING'S TRIBUTE TO U. S. ARMY

"The Decisive Factor in Determining the Victory,"
Says King Albert

Belgian Ruler Makes Important Addresses in House and Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—King Albert of the Belgians paid homage in the house of representatives yesterday to the American army which he described as "the decisive factor in determining the victory." In an address to the senate a few minutes earlier he had asserted that "nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy" than the friendship between his country and the United States.

The addresses of his majesty today were the longest and most important he has made in America. They were intended as messages to the entire nation and his sincerity in expressing the thanks of Belgium to Americans for their aid was plainly evident.

"I salute," he said to the senate, "not only the eminent men who received me here during the day, but I salute the memory of your great predecessors, who during one hundred and thirty years have sat in this place and given to the whole world the example of highest civic virtues. This welcome of the senate seals that reception, so warm and so spontaneous, I have received everywhere during my journey across this magnificent country. I am deeply moved by the expressions of sympathy that the name of Belgium evokes from this noble American people."

"Nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy than that friendship which unites the great republic with its one hundred and ten million citizens and the realm of which I am the constitutional head, with its seven and a half million inhabitants. If there is no equality of power and riches between them there is equality in the love of liberty and in aspiration towards social progress. On both sides of the Atlantic the same ideal inspires us. The exchange of ideas, the commercial relations, the visits to Belgium of eminent American citizens, of whom many sit in this assembly, are so many means of tightening the bonds between the two nations."

"I hope with all my heart that these relations, which go back as far as memory, which have been fortified during the war as well as by the admirable assistance which you rendered Belgium by feeding her people and by fraternity in arms, will never cease to develop for the great good of the two peoples."

The visit to the senate of King Albert and the Duke of Brabant lasted only half an hour, and they went immediately to the house. In his address there, his majesty said:

"I am happy to be able to hear to this chamber which embodies the living spirit of the American people, the greetings of Belgium, a democratic and parliamentary state, created by the vote of the popular assembly of 1830, which proclaimed the independence of our provinces."

"Our two peoples have fought and triumphed together. The intervention of the American army was the decisive factor in determining the victory. I pay my respects and sincere homage to the officers, the soldiers and sailors, who fell for a great cause on the battlefields of Europe and in the defense of the seas."

"The hearts of Belgians whom these heroes helped to liberate from the domination of the enemy go out in profound gratitude to the wounded. In their name, I address to the wounded of the great war the assurance of our affection and sympathy. I express the gratitude of Belgium to those distinguished American citizens who gave themselves with such a spirit of sacrifice to the task of lightening the sufferings of the Belgian people."

"In this noble assembly I solemnly thank the members of the commission for relief and the innumerable committees that helped it in its admirable efforts. I salute, in particular, the names, graven forever in our memories, of Herbert Hoover and Brand Whitlock."

"May this splendid American nation so richly endowed by nature, so magnificently served by its people, pursue in the serenity of its power, its work of achievement, of culture and of progress."

R. R. SHOPMEN VOTE ON SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Officials of the four railroad brotherhoods and shop crafts today were taking a strike vote of the 1500 employees of the union railroad who operate trains in steel plants of the Pittsburgh district. The result of the vote will not be known until next Sunday and in event the men favor a strike they will be called out in sympathy with the striking steel workers, according to the brotherhood executives.

A statement in connection with the steel strike, addressed to Pennsylvania representatives in congress by the Homestead chamber of commerce was made public here today. It expresses the opinion that American workmen are in favor of industrial peace but are interfered with "only by imported leaders or agitators and alien workmen."

To remedy the situation the chamber urges the enactment of laws placing under government regulation combinations of employers and capital and of employees and labor organizations.

GOVERNMENT CREATIONS

Women's clothing prices are skyrocketing so in London that the government has decided to go into the trade of Worth, Paquin, et al. Half a million standard costumes and coat frocks will be manufactured under government supervision. This was done in 1918—perhaps the styles will be a revival. Leeds has two million yards of material available for these "standardized" garments—but at that the cost price will be $18 or $20, as against $14 to $16 for similar garments last year.

Somewhat we shudder for the ladies—but then Paris is putting out "national" ready-made clothing at the rate of 75,000 suits monthly at 100 francs a suit (for the clothing house prices are up to 250 francs). So if the former French dandy and English beauty ever pass each other these days, possibly they will mutually avert an electrified glance.—The Nation's Business for November.

Which Do You Prefer?

BECAUSE both are made by Armour, you can use on your table and in your kitchen, either 3X Oleomargarine or Nut-ola nut margarine, and in either case be sure you are getting the best of its own kind. For, both are made in the world's finest exclusive oleomargarine plant and guaranteed in purity and quality by this big name in the pure food world—

Armour's

3X
Oleomargarine
Made Under Government Inspection

Pure oleo oil and neutral, highly refined vegetable oils, a good per cent of choice uncolored creamery butter and milk salted to taste from dairy farms under inspection of Board of Health—just these ingredients and nothing more are blended for 3X oleomargarine. And they are churned in our new tile-lined plant, where cleanliness is enforced in every detail.

3X Oleomargarine, made under Government inspection and sold under Government license, has back of it the quality guarantee that goes with the name of Armour.

Nut-ola
A Pure Vegetable Oil Product

Armour's Nut-ola is similar to the nut product used so largely in Europe. It is made only from highly refined coconut oil and peanut oil, pasteurized milk from inspected dairy farms, and salt—nothing more.

Perfect to such an extent in foreign countries, Armour has imported the processes complete. We even brought from Holland our electric churns and experts to operate them. So what is today offered as a new food in America has back of it four decades of use and manufacturing experience. Try Nut-ola. It proves the flavor you like.

PICTURE STORY OF THE ARCTIC REGION

The frozen northland of Eskimo, reindeer and terrible cold—with its Arctic wilderness of ice and snow was convincingly portrayed by Donald M. MacMillan, for many years an explorer in the Arctic regions, before a large audience at the First Universalist church last evening. During his lecture Mr. MacMillan showed many stereoscopic views of the land from which he recently returned after a four years' stay.

During his trip through the north Mr. MacMillan and his party covered 10,000 miles by sledge, living mainly on the game they could shoot, which consisted of musk ox, white bear, reindeer and wolves. These wolves are larger and more ferocious than the members of the species of our own northwest, he said, and will follow a man for miles in the hope of making him their prey.

The speaker described the Eskimos at some length. Eskimos do not live throughout the year in snow huts as is generally supposed, he said, but spend a greater part of the time in rock huts. They live principally on meat and birds' eggs. Although a most primitive people they are unusually healthy and clever, he declared, and usually ready and willing to assist exploring parties to the best of their ability.

NATIONAL TREND AWAY FROM MILITARY AND TOWARD DEMOCRACY IN JAPAN

TOKIO, Oct. 10. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The Japanese press gives prominence to the fact that applications of Japan's young men to enter the military academy have diminished considerably during the past year. The remark is made this falling off indicates a national trend away from military and toward democracy.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Eugene Richard and Miss Lydia Lecuyer, both residents of Dracut, were married yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at 5 o'clock at St. Louis' church by Rev. J. B. Labesiere. The bride was attended by Miss Lydia Richard, a sister of the bridegroom, while the best man was Mr. Omer Lecuyer, an uncle of the bride. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, 48 Hamblett avenue, Dracut, and later the couple left on an extended honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will make their home at 476 Merrimack street, this city.

White Sparks
Miss Edith M. Sparks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Sparks, last evening became the bride of Mr. William J. White, Jr., of this city. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride, 251 Wilder street, by Rev. J. M. Craig, D.D. There were no bridal attendants. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. White will make their home at 251 Wilder street.

up for Debate Today—
Vote of Confidence

LONDON, Oct. 29.—National Finance was the topic up for debate in the house of commons today, with the government facing probably as critical a body of members as ever in the history of parliament. More than a 100 members had given notice of a desire to speak, and all of them were understood to be prepared to belabor the government for its alleged waste and extravagance. Some of the government's keenest critics are among the supporters of the coalition, including such staunch unionists as Sir Edward Carson and Lord Robert Cecil.

The program called for the introduction this afternoon by Austin Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, of the official resolution drafted by the cabinet at Monday's meeting. The motion declares "that this house, realizing the serious effects upon the trade and industry of the nation of the enormous financial burdens resulting from the war, promises its hearty support to the government in all reasonable proposals, however drastic for the reduction of expenditure and the diminution of debt."

This is counted as equivalent to a demand for a vote of confidence. Donald Maclean for the independent liberals and W. C. Adamson for the labor party have tabled amendments which are virtually equivalent to votes of censure.

It is expected the debate will occupy the remainder of the parliamentary week. Both Premier Lloyd George and Mr. Bonar Law, the government leader, will speak in the government's defense. Winston Churchill, the war secretary, will defend the war office, against which some of the strongest charges of extravagance have been launched. Others of the ministers will probably offer defenses of their respective departments.

Notwithstanding the intense anti-government feeling in a large section of both the house and electorate, present opinion in political quarters is that the defeat of the government is unlikely.

Vote of Confidence

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The government last night received a vote of confidence in the house of commons.

The bill renewing the powers of the defense of the Realm act was under discussion. Sir Frederick Bannbury, having obtained the speaker's endorsement of a technical objection to the bill, moved its adjournment and the substitution of a new bill.

Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman, basing himself on the speaker's admission that the bill could be remedied in committee, refused to withdraw the bill, and made the question one of confidence.

The Bannbury motion was then rejected by a vote of 253 to 77.

To Act on Coal Strike

those present, it was stated, will have a vote.

The delegates entered the conference with a full realization of the seriousness of their undertaking. On every hand they have been met with expressions of the grave consequences attaching to the threatened strike on the verge of winter.

Discontinuance of the production of coal would more effectively tie up the industries of the country than would a strike of any other body of workers and in addition such action would cause untold suffering among citizens of the country. Despite the frantic efforts of the railroads to furnish extra cars to the mines for transportation, of what fuel is on hand, it will be impossible to provide an adequate supply for even a short period.

Up to the hour of the conference, miners' officials reiterated that they were willing to negotiate with the operators, but said that the latter had showed no inclination to discuss the demands.

"For the first time in the history of the miners' wage conferences," Acting President Lewis said, "the operators have failed to offer a suggestion. Heretofore we have been able to sit down and present our side of the controversy and the operators their proposals."

"Possibility of government operation of the mines has been advanced by some of the delegates who apparently were receptive to the idea. On the other hand, high officials of the organization scouted the idea of government control and added that they could not see what power could be exerted to make men work when they did not want to work."

"Practically 90 per cent. of the miners are members of the organization and directly involved in the strike," said William Green, international secretary-treasurer of the miners. Consenting men to operate the mines would avail the government nothing as there would not be enough men to produce much coal."

Every district of the international organization of the miners was called upon to send representatives to the conference today except those of Canada.

CABINET AGREES

ON PLAN OF ACTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—How to deal with the soft coal strike if the miners, ignoring President Wilson's command to "stay on the job," walk out Friday night, was definitely agreed upon today at a two-hour meeting of the cabinet.

The plan of action was not disclosed, but it is known that the cabinet stood as one man for protection of the rights of the public which would suffer with the closing of the mines.

But, while steps already taken and which might be regarded as drastic, were approved, Secretary Lansing, who presided, brought word from the meeting that the situation was not hopeless. All day the belief had grown that the international executive board at its meeting today at Indianapolis would postpone the strike, at least. Hope was expressed in some quarters that the strike would be called off by the men who had called it, but officials declined to say whether this was based upon information purporting to convey some idea as to the attitude of the unions.

Mr. Lansing would not say if any facts had been laid before the meeting to justify hope of averting the strike.

The railroad administration, it was learned, is putting forth every effort to move the coal already mined to districts where present stocks are running dangerously low.

Meantime government agents are taking a quick census and trying to find out how long the stocks on hand might last.

WOOL AUCTION SALES

LONDON, Tuesday, Oct. 28.—There were 9500 bales offered at the wool auction sales today. Bidding was active and prices were rising. Merinos and fine crossbreds gained five per cent and medium crossbreds 10 per cent. New South Wales greasy sold at 6s 2d a record. Continental buyers were active and some buying for German account was reported.

Constantinople Paper Complaints—Says Pres. Wilson's Illness Disaster

CONSTANTINOPLE, Saturday, Oct. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unfavorable criticism has been caused by despatches from English and American sources to the effect that the United States will not accept either the Armenian or Turkish mandates.

In commenting on the situation the newspaper Yakit says: "President Wilson's illness is a disaster for us, as he is unable to carry out his plans. He has been apprised of our wishes for American help to maintain the integrity of our territory." It is pointed out that, so far, no American statesman or business man has been heard from relative to the Turkish mandate.

Republican Rallies

ers were on hand at both places but were not called upon owing to the brief time available.

At the Lamson Co. plant Mr. McDonald said that Mr. Long, democratic candidate for governor, was "availing" on his issues and that most of them were false, designed to hoodwink the voters.

Referring to the graduated income tax which Mr. Long has been advocating in his campaign, the speaker said that the public was not being told that it would take a concurrent vote of the senate and house of representatives, with at least two-thirds of each body favoring it, before such a law could become effective. Then it would have to be signed by the governor and four years later be referred to the people on the initiative and referendum.

"Mr. Long is advocating a five-cent fare for Boston," said Mr. McDonald, "but he is not telling you that he is invited by the commission which is now studying the street railway problem in an effort to find a remedy for unsatisfactory conditions to appear before it and offer any suggestions he might have. He is not telling you that he has not yet accepted the invitation."

Mr. McDonald pleaded strongly for Americanism in the present campaign and said that he favored legislation which would send an immigrant to this country back to his home if he did not become a citizen within five years after his arrival here.

"You democrats are sick and tired of this administration at Washington. Why not register your protest at the state election next Tuesday?"

"Do you know that Richard H. Long has on his payroll six members of the Boston Policemen's union who are touring the state campaigning for him? Mr. Long dares to do this when the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, Mr. Herbert, has openly condemned the strike of the policemen."

"There has been some talk about what the republicans have done for labor at the state house. Within the past year we passed the 48-hour law for women and children as well as im-

At the Perry street rally Mr. Dolan confined himself to contrasting Mr. Long, whom he termed a representative of capital with Governor Coolidge, "a real friend of labor." Mr. Dolan said that for 25 years he had voted a straight democratic ticket but that this year he was to act differently.

Lowell Man's Misery Turned to Joy

John P. Power, 416 Merrimack St., Lowell, a locomotive repairer at Tremont & Suffolk Mills, a man well known in his trade and throughout the city said:

"Six months ago I became so lame from rheumatism that I could hardly get out of my chair. My work was gone so that when I got home I had to go right to bed and morning I was so sore and stiff it seemed I just couldn't get out of bed. My kidneys were bad, my back ached a great deal and the urine would burn me and was high-

Health Hints by Public Health Service

The following article, discouraging the handshake, is another of a series conducted by the United States public health service, by direction of Rupert Blue, surgeon general, U. S. public health service.

Did you ever make a diary of your fingers? Did you ever set down in cold black and white the things your fingers touch every day, and did you ever consider the number of times daily that your unwashed fingers seek your mouth?

When surgeons discovered that it was their own infected fingers which carried germs into wounds they set about trying to discover a means whereby their hands could be rendered surgically clean, i. e., free from germs. The whole realm of chemistry was ransacked for agents which would disinfect hands, and the scrubbing and immersion to which they subjected their hands are even yet a tender memory to the surgeons of that period. But all of these efforts proved useless and at last in despair surgeons took to wearing rubber gloves which could be boiled, thus bringing to each patient, as it were, a fresh pair of sterile hands. In other words, try as you will you can't by any known method make your hands absolutely clean.

The great agent in the spread of these diseases whose causative organism is present in the secretions of the mouth and nose, is the human hand and if saliva was bright green we would be amazed at the color of our fingers. As a matter of fact most of us carry our fingers to our mouth or nose many times daily, there to implant the germs of disease which other careless people have spread about, there to collect a fresh cargo of infectious material to scatter for somebody else.

It is true that the germs of disease did quickly once they leave the human body, but what does the death of a few billion germs matter so long as the supply is copious and never ending.

What an enormous number of infected things we touch during the day and how infrequent and cursory are the hand washings we perform.

We should all learn to keep our fingers out of our mouth and nose. Thus we limit the spread of the disease from these offices at least. It is also desirable to discourage the practice of excessive handshaking, and help eliminate the danger of contracting disease from someone else who is not quite so careful in keeping his fingers clean. Why should not a courteous bow be a sufficient salute to our friends.

Questions and Answers

Q. Is it cruel to muzzle dogs?

A. No. The dog does not suffer and can easily be trained to feel perfectly at ease with his muzzle on. If all dogs in our country could be muzzled for a few years rabies would disappear. The dogs could then be unmuzzled without danger of the disease to man or beast.

Q. Why was pneumonia usually more fatal in army camps?

A. In camps where men live in close contact with each other an exceedingly fatal form of pneumonia sometimes develops. At such times the germ is probably handed on from one pneumonia case to another and grows in the human lungs until it becomes especially adapted to this kind of home.

FABULOUS AMOUNTS SPENT IN PRODUCING "THE EYES OF THE WORLD"

Audiences as a rule have little conception of the enormous sums of money that are expended on one big film production. To say that during the making of a picture a scene costing exactly $1000 and taking up on the screen the period of two seconds would seem a wild exaggeration. Yet no one would venture to argue the cost of the banquet scene in "The Eyes of the World," the stupendous film version of Harold Bell Wright's popular novel that will have its first showing at the Owl theatre on Monday next, Nov. 3.

To give the scene the atmosphere of a millionaire's home, elaborate preparations were made. The attention given to detail is emphasized in the floral decorations, which in themselves would seem to cost a small fortune. Digressing a trifle from the story, the film producers, cognizant of the opportunities such a scene provides for the sensational touches craved by all moving picture audiences, engaged a classic dancer, whose spectacular attire and graceful art have such an overwhelming effect on the audience that for the time being the story is almost forgotten.

A distinguished dancer of enviable reputation and one who has never before loaned her art to the motion picture enterprise, she accepted the attractive offer which the Clune Co. made her on the condition that her identity would not be disclosed.

Her dance covers a period not lasting over one whole minute on the screen, and the sum paid her would probably have even more effect on an audience than her sensational appearance on the screen, which invariably arouses curiosity as to who she is. But the secret is not to be divulged.

BANQUET AND DANCE ARMISTICE NIGHT

Further plans for the banquet and dance to be held on Armistice night were advanced at an enthusiastic meeting of Co. K Associates held last evening at the Community Service club. Chairman Charles A. Ganley of the entertainment committee spoke at length and assured the members of a most enjoyable event on that occasion and the meeting chose Capt. Jas. N. Greig as toastmaster for the affair. Former Sergt. John J. Magner of Norwich, Conn., was one of the out-of-town members present, while there were large representations from the 103d and 104th Infantry, 101st Engineer Train, 101st Military Police and the Fourth Pioneers.

Lowell Woman Prosecuting Claim Through the Bristol County Probate Court

TAUNTON, Oct. 29.—Elizabeth Robinson Carville of Lowell is prosecuting a claim through the Bristol county probate court, to establish that she is the sole surviving heir-at-law to the estate of Elizabeth Robinson, who died in New Bedford, Feb. 15, 1916, and her interests are being looked after by James A. O'Donnell, Esq., a Lowell attorney. She says that she is the niece of the old lady, whose estate of some six thousand dollars was turned over to the treasurer and receiver general of the commonwealth in 1917 after an unsuccessful search by the court agents to find any heirs-at-law who might be entitled to it.

The initial proceeding was the filing in Taunton of a petition by Mr. O'Donnell, asking that Elizabeth Robinson Carville be appointed administratrix, and setting forth that the Lowell niece is the sole heir-at-law.

Mrs. Robinson, although she lived for years in New Bedford, was secretive as to her personal affairs, and cultivated no friendships to whom she told anything in regard to herself, that assisted the court in its search for possible heirs. Charles N. Serpa, a New Bedford attorney and public administrator, settled the estate and after an unsuccessful search, in which he says he considered the Lowell woman, but rejected her claim to be a niece, the money was all turned over to the commonwealth.

That Miss Robinson was well-to-do was not dreamed of by the friends who had ministered to her wants during her last illness. After her death, when the bedding was removed, the space between mattresses was found to be stuffed with several thousand dollars in bank notes, a large part of them one dollar bills. Some of these had laid there so long that they were almost ready to fall apart, and must have mouldered there for years.

Oregon, Ill.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the loom and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens very year it made it very hard for me."

"I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work and I am so grateful that I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. D. M. Alters, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill.

Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Alters.

The letters constantly being published from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come:

THE STRAND
Romance and the glamor of beautiful girls contribute an exotic setting to "Lombardi, Ltd." in which, as Tito Lombardi, an eccentric Italian gown designer, Bert Lytell has one of the most picturesque roles of his career. This wonder-picture will be shown at the Strand for the last time this afternoon and night. See it by all means. It's interesting to the women folk, and most entertaining for the men. The young women models are shapely and strikingly handsome, while their gown creations are most artistic. Adorable Alice Joyce, appearing in "The Winchester Woman," is a picture play of extraordinary worth. The remainder of the bill is up to the high standard of this theatre.

Beginning tomorrow and continuing the remainder of the week, Madge Kennedy in "Through the Wrong Door," and William Russell in "Sacred Silence."

OPERA HOUSE
Melodramatic productions of the superior grade, when handled and interpreted by a competent cast, rank with the very best of stock stage entertainment. This fact is forcibly and pleasingly brought out by the Lowell Players this week in their presentation of Mabel S. Keightley and Dorothy Potter's four-part play, "A Woman at Bay." It's a piece of unusual worth and has all of the live and interesting elements that go in the making of a first-class offering. Miss Marguerite Fields, the leading woman, is giving another demonstration of her exceptional versatility. The characterization of the role of "Nancy" (the woman at bay), is certainly worthy of the many favorable things said of her work, while the efforts of John Meenan and the others are also praiseworthy. Order your tickets well in advance for the remaining performances.

Next week the rollicking comedy hit, "Here Comes the Bride," will be presented. It's the first production of this piece locally and is sure to meet with the approval of all.

OBSERVE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Colburn of New Boston Village, Dracut, observed their golden wedding yesterday, and the affair although intended to be informal, was attended by nearly 100 friends and relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, who are well known and held in the highest esteem by the residents of the town, were showered with congratulations and appropriate gifts, including a purse of gold and 50 roses, the latter from the Dracut grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn were married in Lowell at the parsonage of the Worthen Street M. E. Church, Oct. 28, 1869, by Rev. Mr. Whitaker. They spent a few years in this city and then moved to Dracut, where they have made their home ever since. Two children were born to the couple, Nellie Colburn, who died several years ago and Chester B. Colburn, who has assisted his father in conducting a successful farm in the New Boston village. Mrs. Colburn is a past master of Dracut grange and at present is chaplain of the organization. She is also overseer of the Ponona grange.

CANADIAN WAR VETERANS MEET

The Canadian Great War Veterans association of this city will wage a membership campaign, by which every soldier eligible for affiliation with the organization will be reached and urged to join the ranks. Preliminary plans were put forward at a meeting of the association last night and plans also were laid for the first reunion, entertainment and dance to be held at the Community Service club on the night of November 21.

The plans for the membership drive call for the division of the city into 12 districts and each will be canvassed in an attempt to get every returned Canadian or British soldier interested in the association. Twenty-five membership applications were considered last night and more are promised, for the next meeting.

The best local talent available will be secured for the reunion and already Commissioner James E. Donnelly, Mrs.

Kettle Roberts and Miss Marion McKnight have promised to take part in the musical program. The committee in charge includes: Jack Waterhouse, president; Lewis Balle, J. Percival, Frank Carney, J. Hurst, J. S. Davies, J. Higgs, vice president of the association, and B. Ireson.

Chemical concerns in Switzerland pay their married men 10 per cent above the salaries of the single men at the same work, and married men get 54 cents a week besides the 10 per cent increase, for each child under 15 years of age.

$20,000 FIRE IN DRACUTFarm Buildings Wiped Out
Together With Contents,
Including Livestock

Fire destroyed the farm buildings of Bert A. Cluff, in Bridge street, Dracut Centre last evening and in addition 20 head of cattle, several pigs, hens, a Reo touring car and truck as well as farming implements, and several tons of hay were consumed by the flames, the total loss approximating $20,000.

The fire was discovered shortly after 7 o'clock by Eugene C. Fox. He quickly sent in an alarm, but owing to the lack of water the firemen and volunteers, who responded, were unable to fight the fire, which soon consumed the barn and its contents and communicated to the large house adjoining, which was also soon razed to the ground.

The farm was originally owned by D. N. Cluff, but since his death a few years ago it was conducted by the son, B. A. Cluff in conjunction with his own. The farm building was occupied by Mrs. D. N. Cluff and her family up to about two weeks ago when they removed to Lowell.

Mr. Cluff stated last night that his loss would be about $20,000 divided as follows: buildings, $3,000; automobiles, $2,000; cattle and livestock, $3,000; hay and farming implements, $10,000. There was but a small amount of insurance on the buildings.

TWICKSBURY NEWSWork on Town Hall Progressing—Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lee of Lee street, Twicksbury Centre, kept open house at their home last evening on the occasion of their golden wedding and a great number of their friends and relatives called to congratulate them and extend to them their best wishes. The venerable couple were showered with appropriate gifts among which was a purse of gold containing $250, and other suitable souvenirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, the latter formerly Miss Mary Elizabeth Farmer, were married in North Twicksbury, Oct. 25, 1863, by Rev. Richard Tolman. They were both born in Twicksbury. Mr. Lee in 1817 and Mrs. Lee in 1819. Mr. Lee was a tanner by trade and conducted a successful business for himself in his home town up to about 30 years ago when he retired.

Five children were born to the couple. Mrs. Wilbur Patten, Miss Harriet Lee, Mrs. Walter Goodwin, all of Twicksbury and Messrs. George and Frederick W. Lee, both of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are also the proud grand parents of eight grandchildren. They are both prominent members of the Twicksbury club of Twicksbury and of the Eliot church of this city.

New Town Hall

Work on the erection of the new town hall in the Centre village is progressing rapidly, considering the difficulties encountered by the builders, J. Nicholson & Son of Boston in securing help. The brick work on the auditorium is finished and workmen are now putting on the roof over that section of the building. The construction of the front section of the structure is not progressing so fast, however, but it is expected that within a short time work will be started on the construction of the tower and if the weather does not interfere and providing also that it is possible to retain the help, the job will be rushed along.

For New Church

A novel entertainment for the benefit of the building fund of the Centre Congregational church will be held this evening in Pickering hall, Centre Village. This will be in the form of illustrations thrown on the screen by Rev. Mr. Mason, pastor of the church. The affair is entitled "Snapshots By My Kodak as Others See Us." It was learned yesterday that Rev. Mr. Mason has been kept busy during the past month or so taking snapshots of prominent residents of the town as they appeared on the streets and that these small photos will be enlarged and thrown on the screen. Great interest is being manifested in this novel entertainment.

The members of the church are still worshipping in Pickering hall and it may be that the contract for the erection of the new church building will not be given out until next spring, for after plans were submitted for the new structure it was found that the church fund was not large enough to warrant the granting of the contract at present. It is being planned to conduct a number of social events during the winter season in an endeavor to swell the building fund.

Don't Neglect
Your Breakfast

The Fear of Indigestion Often Prompts One to Start the Day Wrong. Eat What You Like, Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet And You're Safe.

Breakfast offers many of the most savory dishes of all the things we eat. And yet more people than otherwise go without breakfast save a roll and cup of coffee for fear of indigestion. If you like a fried egg, or some buckwheat, or sausage for breakfast go to it and follow with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. You'll have no trouble. The average person who neglects breakfast will be hungry before noon. Most men smother to kill the appetite or munch on something to carry on till lunch time. An empty stomach under these conditions is not storing up energy but on the contrary, is susceptible to many influences that may work hardship for the next meal. It is advisable to eat three good meals a day and digest them. If the stomach seems to be weak, to help it or give it assistance is the rational thing to do. Try a good breakfast and follow it with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you'll soon learn that regularity of meals follows a natural tendency, not an acquired one. You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale in almost all drug stores throughout the United States and Canada.

duct a number of social events during the winter season in an endeavor to swell the building fund.

An Old Landmark

Employees of the park department of the town are now busy removing an old landmark in the form of an old elm tree at the entrance of the new town hall. This tree, which is believed to be over 100 years old, measures about 3½ feet in diameter and was the pride of that section of the town, but its condition lately has been such that the authorities have deemed it advisable for the safety of the public to cut it down. It is expected the tree will yield several cords of good lumber.

Building New Road

Under the direction of the highway commissioners a gang of laborers is employed in laying a macadam road between Silver lake and Twicksbury. This stretch of road has been in a very bad condition for a long time and those who have occasion to go over the thoroughfare will be grateful to the town and highway commissioners when the improvements are completed. The town and highway commissioners are each paying half of the expense.

Meld a Social

A social and entertainment was conducted recently by the members of Twicksbury grange and the affair was largely attended. The affair was held in Pickering hall and proved most enjoyable. Entertainment numbers were given by talent of the grange and a buffet luncheon was served. The arrangements were in charge of the entertainment committee.

Personal Items

Invitation cards have been sent out for the wedding of Mr. William Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett of North Twicksbury and Miss Ethel Barris of Jenness street, Lowell, the ceremony to take place Nov. 1 at the First Presbyterian church in Lowell. Mrs. J. Geream of Bethlehem, N. H., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alder King of the Centre Village.

Mrs. Wilbur Patten of the Centre village, who recently underwent an operation is convalescing and is now able to enjoy a short automobile ride daily.

Miss Ella E. Flemings, principal and teacher at the Foster school, has tendered her resignation, which will take effect Nov. 10. Miss Flemings will make her home in Lowell with her brother, Charles Flemings, whose wife died recently.

With the close of the active building season the United States faces a housing shortage equal to the needs of 4,000,000 people.

THE PROMOTION OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP

Managers and employees of the Lowell and Lawrence branches of the H. V. Greene Co. of Boston gathered at the Harrisonia hotel Monday evening to enjoy an excellent dinner and a happy program of post-prandial exercises, whose aim was promotion of good fellowship.

The Lowell men were the hosts, arbitrarily made so by the stipulations of a rival campaign for business, which said that the losing branch should entertain the other at dinner. It was a week's campaign for clients and Lowell lost out by the proverbial eye lash. Thirty-two employees sat around the attractive tables and considered and pronounced good one of Mr. Harris' best menus. Orchestra music added pleasure to the banquet.

Clarence E. Carter, Lowell manager, filled the role of toastmaster most gracefully and conducted an informal program of after-dinner talks and anecdotes. Singing was not forgotten, and the banquet wound up with "Auld Lang Syne" and "Till We Meet Again."

The banquet room at the hotel was decorated in seasonable colors of black and yellow, while cornstalks, pumpkins and Halloween features added to the attractive scheme.

Polo League Leaders From Fall River Defeated in Fast Game of Polo, 7 to 5

Lowell won from the league leading Fall River team in a fast and hotly contested game of polo at the Crescent rink last night. The score was 7 to 5. The game was replete with thrills and excitement, with the winner in doubt until the final period. The first period ended 2 to 2, while at the end of the second the score was again tied, 4 to 4. When the third opened both teams went out to break the tie and get the advantage. Some artistic work by Harkins, Griffith and Davies brought three goals to Lowell with Davies the scorer, and while Fall River added one as the period waned, Lowell's strong defense prevented further scoring.

With "Big" Fred Jean at the helm and the speedy Steve Pierce, George Hart, Bill Cusick and Jim Purcell in the lineup the leaders entered the cage confident of victory. The visitors have been named the "Tigers" by admiring fans in Fall River, but the Harkins crew tamed them last night and sent them back to the lair a disappointed unit.

The game was one between two well matched clubs. Both played the passing game, with Jean feeding his rushes cleverly and Harkins doing the pivot work for the home club. Lowell played a new man, Carigan of Providence, in place of Asquith, who is out of the game as a result of an injury, but the change made little difference in the combination work of the locals. Davies, first rush for Lowell, who has been showing marked improvement under the expert coaching of Harkins and Griffith started last night. He took the passes from the veterans with much artistry and he wielded an accurate stick. He scored five of Lowell's goals with Harkins and Griffith, the other contributors.

For the visitors Jean played a strong game, both on the offense and defense, while Pierce, son of Dicky Pierce of the old Lowell team, showed much of the class of his famous dad. He's a fast skater, a good floor worker, and demonstrated rare driving abilities. He pulled a ball out of the air on a long drive from Jean and deflected it into the net for one of the prettiest goals of the game. George Hart scored four for the "Tigers" and turned in a very good performance on the floor. Lowell was first to score with Davies getting one in three minutes and 45 seconds. Hart then hammered through a brace, but Griffith followed quickly with one that tied the score. In the second Pierce put Fall River in front by scoring one from mid air. Harkins came through with a "beaut" for Lowell and the game was tied for the second time. After Davies had again counted, Hart knotted the count for the third time, just before the period ended. Both clubs entered the final session to play their hardest to get the lead. Some very good team work by the Lowell offense men produced the desired results with Davies poking in three in less than four minutes. Lowell then played on the defensive, and while Hart got one for Fall River and all members of the "Tiger" outfit worked industriously, the big horn sounded without further scoring. The lineup:

POLO NOTES

When Fall River players appeared on the floor their uniforms of yellow and black stripes caused many comments—"When did you get out, Jean?" asked a fan.

Big Jean has certainly assembled a fast club. He's got 'em all going at top speed.

Steve Pierce lived up to advanced recommendations. He's fast, a good floor worker, and is in the game every minute.

Davies is improving with every game.

Carigan who played in place of Asquith, who was injured the other night, put up a fine game.

Paul Gardner, who played with Lowell two seasons ago and had a big part in the locals winning the pennant has been signed up by New Bedford and will play with the Whalers here tonight.

Tonight's game will be the last local game of the week.

Providence won from Lawrence in a rough game last night by the score of 4 to 3. Lawrence lost a point on fouls. Red Williams played with Providence.

"Bob" Hart caged five goals last night and New Bedford defeated Salem, 4 to 3. New Bedford lost one point on fouls.

New Bedford, with "Bob" Hart, Barney Doherty, Mollie Conley, Paul Gardner and Kehoe in the lineup, will play Lowell at the Crescent rink tonight. A great battle is expected. New Bedford is traveling at a fast clip, and Lowell realizes that the "Whalers" are one team that will stand in their path toward the pennant. Many of Bob Hart's friends plan to turn out in large numbers to greet him when he hops into the cage.

Already the acquisition of Duke Dufresne has helped the Lawrence team. Duke was just the man needed to fill that big gap at center, and now Lawrence is bound to travel at a fast pace.

BOB MARTIN WINS

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Bob Martin of Akron, heavyweight champion of the American expeditionary and allied forces, won his first professional bout when he defeated Joe Bonds of New York at the end of the 10th round of a scheduled 15-round contest here last night. When Referee Mat Hinkle stopped the bout.

Experiments conducted at the electrical exposition in New York recently showed that cows milked to music gave more milk than those milked in silence.

ALL BOXERS IN FINE FETTER FOR BOUTS

At Ketchell, of Bridgeport, Conn., who will meet Billy Duffy of Everett in one of the 10 round bouts at the Crescent A.A. tomorrow night. Is a very aggressive and hard hitting performer. He has set up a great record in the ring and boasts of a victory over Louis Begash, who gave Pete Hartley a hard battle here several months ago. Ketchell has been training diligently for he realizes that Duffy will be a formidable opponent. Duffy appeared here at the South End benefit show and his willing manner made a big hit with the fans. Babe Christo, of Lowell, who was recently discharged from the navy, is in fine condition for his 10-round bout with Jack Stone of Boston. Stone writes that he will be in fine fettle when the bell rings and the fans look for much action in this number. In the other ten round event Tommy Doyle and Johnny (Young) Avilla, both Lowell favorites, will swap punches. Both these boys are hard hitters, ever ready to exchange, and their offering ought to be a peppy one. In the preliminary Young Pano, the Lowell "dancing master" and Jackie Clark will appear.

TIPITZ BEATS PARKER
BOSTON, Oct. 29.—When Joe Tipitz of Philadelphia defeated Charlie Parker of the South End in their 12-round bout in Mechanics building last night the local fans were provided with a big surprise. All the wise ones, when it comes to wagering were offering 10 to 1 on Parker. Fortunately for them there were few who figured Tipitz to win. Tipitz is a far better boxer than the local fans figured he was a good head, can stand a punch, get about on his feet well and is clever at getting away from a punch. Parker hit Tipitz often with left punches that he received from and right but the Philadelphian did not seem to mind the punches, coming back with left counters to the face and jaw that shook Parker up. Many of Parker's friends who were betting on him and right but the Philadelphian did not seem to mind the punches, coming back with left counters to the face and jaw that shook Parker up. Many of Parker's friends who were betting on him

DISCUSS "INFLU" AT CONVENTION

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—Because of the scarcity of specific knowledge of influenza, the American public health convention in general session here today had no definite plan to meet a possible recurrence of the epidemic this year and approved the plan of Dr. Allen B. Freeman, Ohio state health commissioner, to center their efforts to prevent complications resulting from the disease.

Several delegates voiced the opinion that the epidemic would appear this winter and that a comprehensive plan for preventing it could not be detailed until more definite information was available. Six new directors of the association were elected at the general session of all bodies last night, including Dr. Eugene R. Kelley of Boston.

PLANS PERMANENT SPRING TRAINING HOME FOR THE CHICAGO WHITE BOX

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—A permanent spring training home for the Chicago Americans with its own hotel and commissary equipment, is planned by Charles A. Conliffe, owner of the club. It was learned today, a site officially and otherwise, adapted to good results in spring training, is being sought. The place picked for the coming training season probably will be chosen as the permanent home, Mr. Conliffe said, but the plan will not be put into effect until it is definitely ascertained the best place for such a home.

BOARD OF TRADE BULLETIN

The Monthly Bulletin of the board of trade for October made its appearance today. This month's issue is given over very largely to the detailed report of the committee appointed to summarize and compare the provisions of the present city charter with those of Plan B. Other articles deal with the entertainment and Americanization activities of the board together with a report of the work being done by the committee considering the advisability of a finance commission.

HEAD OF TRAINMEN CONDEMNS STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Strike of trainmen in the Chicago Switching district, called by local union leaders for Thursday unless certain wage demands are granted "in full," would be "wholly unauthorized and without the sanction of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen," it was said here last night by W. O. Lee, president of the brotherhood. The proposed strike, Mr. Lee said, was "nothing more than an attempt to discredit the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen."

Mr. Lee said two officials of the Brotherhood attended the meeting said to have been held Sunday night at which it was announced by local union leaders, the strike was decided on. These officials, however, Mr. Lee said, had no knowledge of any decision to call a strike.

The Call'em

If any two college football eleven in the country deserve the title of courageous, the Princeton and Harvard teams of the college. Neither outfit has been able to slip into the schedules of Harvard or Yale, but, despite this ostracism from the elite, they have managed to draw up rather hefty programs. Of course, neither the Princeton nor the Harvard would think of going through a schedule which calls for five or six real games in row, because each exists mainly for the purpose of crushing Princeton and each other. For instance, consider the big Green team of this fall. After meeting Penn State at Hanover a week ago last Saturday and winning, 19 to 0, they journeyed to the Polo grounds last week-end and drove back to Cornell, 9 to 0. Next Saturday the powerful Colgate team is met at Hanover; on the following Saturday the University of Pennsylvania will be faced, and on the next Saturday, Brown at Fenway park.

No Chance for Next
Even in the same measure has Larry Bankhart's Colgate team overloaded its schedule with tough games. In their season to date they have met and conquered in succession, Brown, Cornell, and Princeton. Next Saturday, as has been said, they meet Dartmouth, and on Nov. 15, Syracuse. If Bob Fisher and Dr. Sharp think that they have a chance to prepare their respective eleven for hard games at the end of the season, how about Spears and Bankhart, who have no easy games in between to serve as "breadthening" spells? Brown held Harvard to a 7 to 0 score, and we venture to say that Robby's team will break apart against Dartmouth's attack at Fenway.

The Big Three
The three veteran drivers of the harness racing game, Murphy, Cox and Geers, finished in that order as money winners in the 1919 grand circuit campaign. Murphy drew down more than $31,000 in purses, Cox $22,000 and Geers $21,000. "Pop" might have been much better than the other two had not a bad spill and resulting injury at Syracuse kept him off the track for several weeks. When he did come back he was late in the season, so most of his total was gained during the early meetings. Alexander, the Great, finished as the high money horse of the campaign, while Mignolla, Cox's Frank, drew several others were always in the running.

FOR THE SWEET TASTE

A Rare Rich Table Syrup of Fine Flavor

You will like Domino Golden Syrup. It is pure, clean cane product—very different from any syrup you ever tasted.

It is flavored with just a dash of the delicate taste of the cane. Sweet and tempting—not too sweet. So pure and wholesome you can eat it at every meal.

A fine food for children. They can drink it, and it will not hurt them! A treat for all the family. A delicious spread on bread, biscuit, cakes and waffles.

Domino Golden Syrup is a table delicacy of the highest grade. Rich, golden amber in color—well-bodied, neither too thick nor too thin.

In two sizes—15 oz. and 25 oz. cans. Be sure and ask your grocer for Domino Golden Syrup. It is made by the American Sugar Refining Company, refiners of Domino Package Sugars—Granulated, Tablet, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown—Adv.

Looking for a Bruise
It is said that Red Vigeant, who looked for a bruise last Saturday and was down for the count in the fourth round of the milling, would have a chance at Red. Why he should exhibit such a lack of common sense as to engage in a fight with a heavy for him and his much too heavy head is not clear, not by a long shot. Vigeant is even less adroit, and another bout would be useless repetition.

Dundee's Gloves Still Flying
Believes of that Dundee-Kloby fight, by the way, keep drifting in and it seems to be the general opinion that seldom has a boxer been forced to take such a sweet lacing as Tommy did on that afternoon.

All Stars Cost Too Much
When someone spread the news after the Lawrence all-star show, that the Cuddy boys lost money on the venture, many who heard the story hesitated in taking it as a fact, but when it is learned that the promoters were forced to guarantee the eight boxers $5000 and the total receipts were less than $5000, of course the matter is seen in a different and clearer light. The all-star bill showed conclusively that a larger crowd will flock to see three or four boxing and one bang-up final bout than four so-called star engagements. It takes a Kloby to pack the Cuddy arena and his drawing power waned and slumped after his disastrous mixup with Dundee.

Textile and Athletics
Never in the history of the school has so much time been granted for athletics as at Lowell this year. Hereofore football and baseball were crammed in somehow and basketball was the result. But this year things are different and the football team are being given plenty of opportunity for practice. Baseball will be big at the school next spring, it is said, and several college teams will reappear on the schedule. How about basketball? That used to be a minor sport at the school, and no Lowell player will ever forget Charlie "Church" and Walker McDonald, "Spot" Gay and "Flicking" Fanning. That was a basketball quintet which perhaps has never been equalled in college ranks in the country, bar none.

GRAND DUCHESS AND PRINCE TO MARRY

LUXEMBOURG, Tuesday, Oct. 22.—Grand Duchess Charlotte of Luxembourg and Prince Felix of Bourbon-Parma will be married here on Nov. 6 by Bishop Meitra, papal nuncio.

Prince Felix was born at Schwarzenau, Sept. 28, 1893. Unlike his brothers, Sixtus and Xavier, who served in the Belgian army, he entered the Austrian service, although he declared at the beginning of hostilities he would refuse to fight against the French.

Owing to Prince Felix's war service, there was some hostility to his marriage to Grand Duchess Charlotte, but the latter declared it was a love match and that she would wed no other. The people of Luxembourg subsequently acquiesced in this view.

INSURGENTS GAIN IN KUBAN TERRITORY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Insurgent forces in the Kuban territory on the northwestern side of the Caucasian mountains making common cause with the Kuban Cossacks, have taken from the forces of General Denikin, the anti-Bolshevik leader, the Black sea port of Novorossysk and occupied the city of Stavropol, according to despatches received today by the Ukrainian mission.

"There is every reason to believe," the despatches assert, "that in a very short time the insurgents will clear the whole Kuban territory of Denikin's so-called volunteer troops."

TOWN MEETING

Tyngsboro to Vote on Trolley Line Question
Tyngsboro will hold a special town meeting next Monday night, Nov. 3, to vote on the question of retaining the trolley line between the town and North Chelmsford, which is scheduled to go out of existence Nov. 1 unless the town expresses a willingness to make up the deficit in operation claimed by the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co.

Some weeks ago the company delivered an ultimatum to the Tyngsboro board of selectmen, in the form of a letter, which stated that service between the town and North Chelmsford did not pay and would be abandoned on Nov. 1 unless the town people came to the aid of the road and furnished sufficient money to allow the line to at least pay for its operation. The question will be put to the voters to decide.

As the special meeting will not be held until the 3rd and the ultimatum named the 1st as the day operation of the line would cease, it is fair to assume that the town will be without service during the interim, but no

Pickpocket Fined
Fines of $100 each were imposed in the cases of Harry Lacker of Boston, George W. Davis of Everett and Jos. Miller of Boston, the three alleged professional pickpockets who were arrested in Merrimack square Oct. 19 by Lieut. Maher and Sergt. Dwyer on the charge of attempted larceny. All three pleaded guilty this morning and lost no time in coming across with the ante prescribed by Judge Enright. They bade a cordial good bye to Lt. Maher and Sergt. Dwyer before they left for parts unknown.

When arrested Lacker described himself as a barber at one of the Boston hotels, while Davis and Miller gave their occupations as storekeeper and advertising solicitor respectively. Although the police admit that the three are a most gentlemanly trio—in fact they were arrested in the very height of fashion this morning—said police assert that each has a long and varied record, and are well known to the police from Boston to Frisco.

NOV. 11, A HOLIDAY

Gov. Coolidge in Proclamation Calls on All to Observe Armistice Day

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Gov. Coolidge issued yesterday a proclamation in connection with the observance of Nov. 11, Armistice day, as a holiday. The proclamation follows:

"The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, by His Excellency Calvin Coolidge, Governor:

"A PROCLAMATION
"Massachusetts has many glories. The last one she would wish to surrender is the glory of the men who have served her in war. While such devotion lives the commonwealth is secure. Whatever dangers may threaten from within or without she can view them calmly. Turning to her veterans she can say, 'These are our defenders. They are invincible. In them is our safety.'

"War is the rule of force. Peace is the reign of law. When Massachusetts was settled the Pilgrims first dedicated themselves to a reign of law. When they set foot on Plymouth Rock they brought the Mayflower compact, in which, calling on the Creator to witness, they agreed with each other to make just laws and render due submission and obedience. The date of that American document was written Nov. 11, 1620.

"After more than five years of the bitterest war in human experience, the great stronghold of force, surrendering to the demands of America and her allies, agreed to cast aside the sword and live under the law. The date of that world document was written Nov. 11, 1918.

"Now, therefore, in grateful commemoration of the unsurpassed deeds of heroism performed by the service men of Massachusetts, of the sacrifice of her people, sometimes greater than their own, of the service rendered by every war charity and organization, to honor those who bore arms, to recognize those who supported the government, in accordance with the law of the current year Tuesday, Nov. 11, 1919, is set apart as a holiday for general observance and celebration of the home-coming of Massachusetts soldiers, sailors and marines. In that welcome may we dedicate ourselves to continued support of the cause for which they freely offered life, that there may be wiped away everywhere the burden of injustice and every attempt to rule by force, and that there may be ushered in a reign of law, that will ease the weak of their great burdens, and leave the strong, unhampered by the opposition of evil men, the opportunity to exert their whole energy for the welfare of their fellow-men. Let war and all force end, and peace and all law reign.

"Given at the Executive Chamber, in Boston, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and nineteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-fourth.

"CALVIN COOLIDGE,
"By His Excellency the Governor.
"Albert P. Langtry,
"Secretary of the Commonwealth.
"God Save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

THE BUCK PRIVATES SOCIETY A. E. F.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—"The Buck Privates society, A. E. F." is the official designation of an organization of overseas fighting men which is out to enlist the membership of every red-blooded scrapper who saw service in the ranks in the recent affair with Germany.

Carried a Tube of Tooth Paste 3 Years

Many a person has stopped brushing the teeth because of tooth pastes that rot, harden or dry out in any weather. Three years ago Mr. Otto Kupfer of 300 Hudson Street, Hoboken, N. J., took two dozen tubes of Albodon to South America. On his return war had broken out and he enlisted in our army and went to France. He was recently discharged and in unpacking found a partly used tube of Albodon three years old, still in perfect condition.

"Albodon is calcium carbonate, sap-sifted and mixed with the well-known oils of cloves, cinnamon and eucalyptus. It is not only perfectly made and effective, but so safe that children may use it. It retails at 25c and proves that the best tooth cream need not cost more.—Adv.

this society. None who served abroad will be permitted to join only after they have received their discharge. But the door is closed to all officers with commissions.

The organization was born at Hansbach, Germany, May 26, 1919, with Private Paul F. Collins, Battery D, Sixth Field Artillery, First Division, as president. Collins, it seems, had put several things across for the entertainment and comfort of the men in the Army of Occupation that the officers had overlooked. The "bucks" decided that when things really were to be done it was they themselves who did them.

"If in fighting, why not also in peace?" was the query.
Well, why not? The Buck Privates society, A. E. F., was the answer. And of the First Division alone, more than 6000 bucks joined.

Organization work in this country will be in the hands of Edward F. McGuire, former quartermaster sergeant in the First Division, with the work directed from Hotel Sherman, Chicago.

Local chapters will be known as "dugouts," and a charter for a dug-

GERMS MULTIPLY VERY RAPIDLY

BY HONORA COSTIGAN

Germs increase by the division of each single germ into two equal parts, making two germs instead of just one.

Then each new germ divides in the same manner, and the germs which are the result of each new division keep on dividing, every 20 minutes when conditions are good, until there are great numbers of germs.

All the germs are the descendants of the one germ.

They multiply in somewhat the same manner as the blacksmith's pennies.

A man once offered a blacksmith a penny for the first nail he made, two for the second, four for the third, eight for the fourth, sixteen for the fifth, and so on doubling the number of pennies for each nail.

The man thought it a very simple matter, but by the time the blacksmith had made 24 nails, he found that nails bought at that rate proved indeed expensive, and that unless he sought a new bargain the blacksmith would soon have all his money.

So it is with the germs; at each division the number doubled.

If our pennies doubled accordingly, in 10 hours a single penny would yield us more than a million dollars. If the multiplication kept up and all the germs lived, in 10 days, the number of germs produced would be great enough to occupy the space now occupied by the waters of the earth.

When conditions are favorable to the growth of germs, division takes place every 20 minutes.

Fortunately, however, only a comparatively small number of the germs produced live.

The competition for food is too great, and large numbers of them really starve to death.

Many of them are poisoned and killed by their own exertion.

To limit the number and growth of germs do all that you can to make living conditions unfavorable for them.

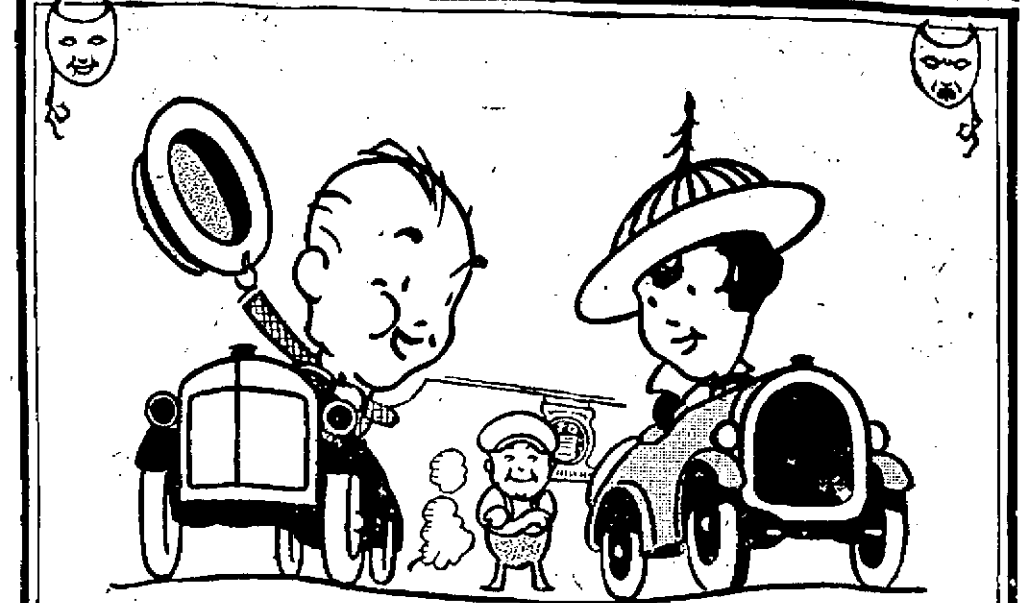

CITIES FOR SALE

Out of a war which has left France and Belgium in desolation and ruins and the rest of Europe but little better off, Uncle Sam has emerged to the good by 35 new cities created by the United States Housing Corporation, the Emergency Fleet Corporation and its subsidiaries, and private industries for the accommodation of the great army of workers who formed the second line of defense in shipyards and munition factories.

Unlike the customary hastily built community these new dots on the map have been firmly constructed with a view to permanence. City planners, architects and sociologists have been allowed to let their imaginations run riot, resulting in 35 custom-made Utopias, valued in the neighborhood of $55,000,000, which are soon to be placed on the market. Bids from realty corporations and from private interests whose endeavors may result in exploitation are to be barred and the present tenants of the houses will be given first opportunities of purchase, offering one solution for the present housing problem.—The Nation's Business for November.

Five hundred Armenian women, employed by the American Red Cross, have built 100 miles of stone roads in Mesopotamia and reconstructed several steel bridges within the past four months to facilitate transportation of Red Cross supplies.

PARIS FACES SERIOUS COAL SHORTAGE

PARIS, Tuesday, Oct. 28.—Government and municipal authorities and coal operators virtually admit the impossibility of finding a remedy here for the coal shortage. Although the cold weather had not yet begun Paris is already feeling the pinch.

At a secret session held yesterday the municipal council discussed the situation and reached the conclusion that within a few weeks coal will not be available either for private houses or for utility services. Restrictions on gas and electric service, as well as travel over the Metropolitan railway will probably be ordered.

Coal stocks in Paris amount to approximately 20,000 tons with only 3000 tons arriving daily. The city needs 10,000 tons per day in cold weather. Wood and petroleum are being used as fuel, but stocks of these are also becoming depleted and their use will only postpone the critical situation a short time. The municipal council, unable to propose a remedy, decided to issue an official statement to the public giving the facts as to the situation. Hereafter all queries will be referred to Louis Loucheur, minister of reconstruction, who appears to be held responsible for the situation, as he alone has the power to import and distribute coal.

Coal merchants and their agents held a meeting yesterday passing resolutions protesting against government measures monopolizing coal imports and asking Mr. Loucheur to abolish coal tickets.

and it was expected final papers transferring the place to the club will be signed within a few days.

Club Lafayette has been occupying its present quarters in upper Merrimack street since it was organized some six years ago. A few weeks ago the building, which was owned by Dr. R. Mignault, was sold to Mrs. Perpetue Bolever of Worthen street, whose plans are to convert it into a boarding and lodging house. She is to take possession of the property Dec. 1 at which time the club's lease expires.

A short time ago a committee was appointed by the club to find a desirable site and several places were looked over, but the committee finally decid-

Says Attack on Petrograd Failed

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The anti-Bolshevik paper Prisy (apparently an Estonian paper) prints a communication from General Yudenitch, dated Oct. 27, declaring that the attack on Petrograd has been unsuccessful. Reports from Revel state that Yudenitch is falling back along the entire line.

Treaty May Come Into Effect Nov. 11

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The German peace treaty may come into effect on the anniversary of Armistice day. It was announced by Cecil Harmsworth, under secretary for foreign affairs, in the house of commons today, that the government hoped the treaty would be formally ratified on Nov. 11, and come into force the same day.

ed upon the Bowers estate in Wannanell street, which received the approval of the majority of the members of the organization, and steps were immediately taken for the purchase of the property.

The old Bowers estate is located at 38 Wannanell street, one of the highest spots in the city. It is a circular stone building four stories high. It was erected 26 years ago by the late Jonathan Bowers of Willow Dale. The cost of the erection of the building was upward of $34,000, and that is not figuring the large tract of land surrounding the building, nor the granite wall in front of the structure, which alone cost $4000. The land, so it is claimed, cost in the vicinity of $12,000, making a total expenditure on the part of Mr. Bowers for his home of over $50,000. The place was occupied by the Bowers family up to about 16 years ago when it became the property of the Libbee family.

The building is four stories high and is equipped with two heating systems, one for hot air and the other for steam. The first floor contains five large rooms, a parlor of oval shape in the center of which hangs a most handsome gas chandelier; a spacious dining room, a large kitchen equipped with a refrigerating plant, a fine library with mahogany casings in its walls and a large hall. All the floors on the first story are of quartered oak.

Leading from the first floor to the top story is a wide spiral stairway, which is located in the center of the building. On the second floor are six rooms, including a large bath room and all are nicely finished. The third and all are nicely finished. The fourth floor contains five rooms, including a large billiard room. The fourth floor is a large big room with large windows and is referred to as the observatory where splendid views of the surrounding country are obtainable.

The doors and framework throughout the building are of mahogany and walnut finish. The interior of the building is really a novelty, for everything is round, that is the rooms walls and even doors are of oval shape. It will be a most ideal place for a club-house. In the rear of the building is a large tract of land, which will serve well as an automobile parking place. The sale of the property is being made through the office of E. Gaston Campbell, a member of the organization, who with Ellis Delisle and John D. Morin is serving on the building committee.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR NURSES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—American nurses to the number of 217, of whom 169 recently have been released from military service, have been granted post-graduate scholarships by the American Red Cross to enable them to train in public health nursing. It was announced at national headquarters today.

This program was dictated by the scarcity of trained public health nurses throughout the country.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—(Havas).—Diplomatics from Rome indicate that considerable concern has been caused there by a report that the United States would refuse to accede to the proposals of Italy regarding the Adriatic problem. In Italian circles here it is indicated that there is also an impression that the United States will not agree to the Italian plan.

TEST WAR-TIME PROHIBITION ACT

Three Suits in Equity in Behalf of R. R. Brewing Corporations Filed

First Move of N. Y. Dealers to Test Constitutionality Made Today

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 28.—Three suits in equity were filed in the United States court for the district of Rhode Island in this city today in behalf of three large brewing corporations to test the constitutionality of the national prohibition act and asking an injunction to restrain the defendants from prosecuting these concerns or their agents or interfering with the business or affairs of the firms.

The plaintiffs are the James Hanley Brewing Co. and the Providence Brewing Co., of this city, and the Narragansett Brewing Co. of Cranston. The suits are filed against Harvey A. Baker and George P. O'Shaunessy, United States district attorney and collector of internal revenue, respectively, for the district of Rhode Island.

The bill of complaint filed by counsel for each plaintiff avers that their property is being taken for public use without compensation and without due process of law and that Congress has exceeded its legislative power in passing the aforesaid national prohibition act.

The three plaintiff corporations employ upwards of 500 persons to whom there is paid annually in wages $1,000,000 or more. The capital stock of the three concerns is $2,700,000, while the good will is valued at an aggregate of $2,700,000. The value of the property that has been taken under the act aggregates $5,000,000, while the goods on hand in the possession of the concerns is estimated at $1,000,000.

N. Y. Dealers Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The first move of New York liquor dealers to test the constitutionality of the war-time prohibition law since the passage of the enforcement act over the president's veto, was made today by filing of suits in federal district court against William H. Edwards, collector of the second internal revenue district here. A West Broadway liquor wholesaler brought the action, alleging the war-time prohibition law to be void and illegal.

In the meantime the majority of the saloons throughout Greater New York were open as usual today and those who knew the countersign were able to get as exhilarated as their thoughts would permit.

A proposition to ignore the law will be considered at a meeting of the liquor dealers on Friday. It was announced by their counsel. The president's veto of the bill and the finding of a federal district judge at Louisville, that the war time law was "unconstitutional" will be the basis for possible action to ignore enforcement measures, it was said.

At the office of the Hotel Association of New York, the secretary declared he believed all drinks would be cut out by hotels, which he declared were doing a good room and restaurant business.

Colonel Daniel L. Porter, commanding the prohibition law enforcers, announced that he had received word from Washington to "do his duty." He said that prosecutions for violation of the law would be carried forward as fast as possible.

TREATY AMENDMENT

End of Senate Battle Over 46 Proposed Changes in Sight Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The end of the senate battle over the 46 amendments written into the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee seemed in sight today, leaders hoping that a vote on the last of the group could be taken today or tomorrow. The amendment was presented by Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire and would exclude all of the British dominions from voting in any League of Nations controversy to which one of them was a party.

A subject not touched on by the committee was injected into the fight today by Senator Gore, democrat, Oklahoma, who presented an amendment to article 12 proposing that under the league, no nation would go to war "until an advisory vote of the people shall have been taken" as an additional condition after arbitration had failed.

The debate centered during much of the session around the treaty's provision for an international labor organization. Efforts to alter it are to be made by several senators.

Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, assailed the labor provision as undemocratic and perilous to American labor interests. Instead of giving labor a "new charter of rights" as President Wilson had contended, he said, "it would perpetuate the wrong and injustice in the present relation existing between labor and capital."

Samuel Gompers and other American delegates had protested against many provisions at Paris, he said, but had been "beaten on every important point."

BIG IMPROVEMENT IN PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Wilson's improvement has reached a point where his physicians have decided to issue no more daily bulletins. This was announced today in the following statement:

"The president's improvement steadily continues. He is eating, sleeping, digesting and assimilating well. His present improvement has now reached a point where it is not considered necessary to issue daily bulletins. The people of the country will be promptly advised of any change in his condition."

During the morning, some executive business was laid before the president.

$50.00 COUNTERFEIT BILL

Lowell banks have posted a notice relative to the circulation of a $50.00 counterfeit bill, a federal reserve note, series of 1914, No. A72280A. It carries a picture of Grant and included in its imperfections, though it is said to be a very clever counterfeit, is the absence of a must on ship appearing thereon.

SWITZERLAND COUNCIL

Satisfaction With Result of Election Expressed by Bourgeois Press

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 28.—Satisfaction with the results of the election to the national council, which show only 33 socialists chosen on the final count, is expressed by the bourgeois press today. The final results show that the council, with a total of 183 members, will be made up as follows: Radical democrats, 63; Catholic conservatives, 42; socialists, 33; the new peasant party, 27; liberal democrats, 9; eastern Switzerland democrats, 4; Grutlians, 3; progressive bourgeois, 1; evangelist, 1.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARIES CONVENTION CLOSING

The second and final day of the convention of women's auxiliaries of Massachusetts and Rhode Island found the delegates again in session at St. Anne's parish house and a list of notable speakers were on hand to discuss various phases of the work of the auxiliaries.

The speakers at this morning's session included Mrs. A. W. Maxfield of Amesbury, Mrs. Frank H. Stone of Melrose, Mrs. Frank Hawley of Cambridge, Mrs. George A. Brown of Everett and Mrs. W. G. Webster of Everett.

The final session of the conference was held this afternoon and opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. A. G. Archibald. Among the speakers at this session were Mrs. Frank Livingston of Fall River and Rev. Charles E. Keith. The conference came to a close late in the afternoon.

Yesterday's Speakers

The speakers at yesterday afternoon's session included H. C. Dudley, of Springfield, whose topic was "County Work—To the Boundary Limits"; J. H. Roehrig, director of boys' work in the Boston Y.M.C.A., who spoke on "Our Most Prominent Citizens—The Boys"; and Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead whose topic was "The World Must Carry On—What?"

At the evening session the speaker was Rev. J. Franklin Knolls, D.D., vice chancellor of the American University at Washington, D. C.

The following officers were elected at yesterday's session:

President, Mrs. H. W. Clark of North Adams.

Vice presidents—Mrs. A. W. Garland of Newburyport, Mrs. Chester A. Pratt of Melrose, Mrs. Albert C. Brown of Fitchburg.

Secretary, Mrs. Arthur J. B. Hudson of Woonsocket, R. I.

Business committee—Mrs. T. A. Bowen of Lowell, chairman; Mrs. L. B. Moore of Newton, Mrs. Otis W. Butler of Lowell.

Resolutions committee—Mrs. H. L. Gulick of Worcester, chairman; Mrs. R. L. Moore and Mrs. F. H. Sawyer of Worcester.

Nominating committee—Mrs. T. A. West of Newton, chairman; Mrs. J. W. M. Clark of Athol, Mrs. H. R. White of Fall River.

BIG THINGS WOMEN ARE DOING NOW

American ways of cooking are under observation. Miss Chizu Takamori, a teacher in the Hirasima School for Girls in Tokyo, Japan, is visiting the United States for the sole purpose of learning a la "Merican" methods of cooking, which she will teach to her Japanese pupils when she returns to Tokyo.

Frau Schuchardt, wife of a Steinberg saloonkeeper, has been elected mayor of Steinberg—Germany's first woman mayor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Domarest has been president of the state board in Pretty Prairie, Kas., for seventeen years. In that time she has never employed a lawyer, and has never experienced a loss.

Clubs organized in the south by the state colleges and the department of agriculture, have made it possible for southern women, who are raising poultry, to market their produce co-operatively. Last year they sold more than half a million eggs in this way.

BELGIAN ROYAL PARTY

ACTIVE AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—With a list of engagements that filled every hour of the day, King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Crown Prince Leopold, started early today upon the activities of the second day's visit of the Belgian royal family to Washington.

The day's program included a journey to Mount Vernon on the Mayflower, the presidential yacht, accompanied by Vice President Marshall and other high officials.

During the morning the king and queen and the Duke of Brabant were to visit the National Red Cross headquarters to express the gratitude of the Belgian people for the service rendered by the Red Cross during the war. The remainder of the forenoon was to be devoted to visits to the bureau of engraving and the navy yard with an hour set apart for other engagements King Albert might care to accept.

A formal dinner in honor of the distinguished visitors will be given tonight by the secretary of state.

ARMY STORE WILL SELL BLANKETS

The managers of the army store in the Bigelow-Hartford building in Market street expect to place blankets on sale tomorrow morning. Four large truck loads of goods were received this afternoon and it is believed that a consignment of army blankets is included in the new stock.

Business was even brisker today than on yesterday when the store opened and the original stock was very nearly demolished this noon. Evaporated apples, farina, more soap, stick candy, pickles and other articles have been added to the well varied stock and more will be obtained from time to time.

It has been decided to keep the store open every week day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., except on Saturdays when the doors will open at 12 noon, and business will continue until 9 o'clock in the evening. Sergt. Maguire and Patrolman Kenney again were on duty at the store today and kept the crowd in motion.

ROW 80 MILES TO SAFETY

NANTUCKET, Oct. 28.—Three fishermen, members of the crew of the Boston schooner Reading, rowed 80 miles through a stormy night to safety here today, and reported that three others of the crew were adrift somewhere off shore. The men who landed were nearly exhausted. They had been rowing since yesterday morning when their dory and another became separated from the Reading in thick weather.

The other dory accompanied them until last night when, tossed by the storm, they lost sight of it. The men who reached here were T. Morrissey, D. Nibore and Reuben Dudrow.

KAISER'S NEW HOME UNLUCKY

DOORN, Holland, Oct. 27.—(By the Associated Press) There is a superstition at Doorn, which, because of incomplete records, is somewhat difficult to bear out, that the house at Doorn recently purchased by the former kaiser, is unlucky for its male occupants. It is said that the house has generally been occupied by widows, the men having died after a few years residence. The Baroness Van Heemstra, who sold the house to the kaiser, was a widow.

Referring to a telegram sent by the committee to Secretary Baker from Portland, Ore., urging that a proposed sale of the government railroad in Portland, Oct. 2, at 8 per cent, of its value be held up, Mr. Ryan said he thought it was outrageous and scandalous and an abuse of the congressional privilege to make charges in

ARMY AIR SERVICE

Congressional Committee Conducting Probe Attacked By John D. Ryan

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The congressional committee which is investigating the army air service was vigorously attacked today by John D. Ryan, formerly director of aircraft production, for having made intimations against "persons whose services had been of value to the government" on the evidence of "soreheads, who failed to obtain government contracts." Mr. Ryan said, "I rushed to you with suspicions. Mr. Ryan said he had informed Secretary Baker soon after taking office that he could have nothing to do with negotiations on extending the Milwaukee into the spruce district because of his connection with the Milwaukee. Secretary Baker then directed Assistant Secretary Stettinius to conduct the negotiations.

Mr. Ryan said the Milwaukee road had never to his knowledge considered purchase of the government spruce railroad.

Mr. Ryan told the committee that the map of the spruce district it had in evidence was prepared for campaign purposes. Asked to explain how, he pointed to a large caption "33 mile government railroad costing $4,000,000," and said no official map would have such wording. The caption was not quite true, he argued.

FUNERAL VEHICLES IN JITNEY CLASS

Funeral vehicles, unless owned by those using them, are in the jitney class and subject to taxation, according to the latest ruling of the treasury department declaring such vehicles to be taxable as passenger automobiles rented for hire. Which means that Lowell's undertakers will soon be called upon by the internal revenue department to ante up a tax of $10 or $20 if they have rented any autos for funeral purposes since the first of the year. Funeral hearses or ambulances are not included in this ruling, which refers only to vehicles used to carry bearers and mourners.

The motor vehicle tax is $10 a year for autos seating from two to seven persons and $20 a year for all seating over seven. All passenger autos rented for hire will also be taxed, and the internal revenue department will see to it that this regulation is lived up to.

On the premises, at the time above stated, will be sold at public auction this most valuable residential property. The location is ideal—fronting on Park Garden and yet within 10 minutes' walk of Merrimack Square. The house is of a grade of construction equalled in but few residences in this city. The finish throughout is of an extremely rich character. There are 17 rooms, many with open fireplaces, on both first and second floors; also a conservatory or sun room on second floor. The house is equipped with every possible comfort and convenience of the highest class modern home—combination heating plant, gas and electricity—base sockets, etc., hardwood floors throughout—some quartered oak—a beautiful drawing room occupies the entire southern side of the first floor—the dining room and library in the northern wing of the house are finished in mahogany, with massive built-in built-in in dining room—there is a butler's pantry—modern kitchen with built-in refrigerator—the plumbing throughout is of the most modern type. On the second floor are several spacious chambers—large tiled bath room and extra linen closet. On the third floor, maid's bath room, vegetable, fruit and wine closets. The house has slated roof and is in good repair. There is ample room in rear for garage. This property is admirably adapted for club or society quarters. This is one of the highest grade properties offered in the City of Lowell in recent years and the opportunity of purchase herein offered is most unusual.

Strike Order of Coal Miners Stands

ORDER TO GO ON STRIKE STANDS

Officials of United Mine Workers Decide Not to Modify Call

Pres. Wilson's Appeal Had No Defender in Indianapolis Conference

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 29.—The strike order of the United Mine Workers, effective Friday midnight, stands. After two hours' discussion, the conference here today of officials of the big union, it was announced, had no idea of modifying the call for a cessation of work. President Wilson's pronouncement on the threatened industrial war had no defender in the conference, it was stated.

Drastic Action Planned
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The government is prepared to take drastic steps to deal with conditions arising in the coal fields if the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America permits the strike order to stand. This became known today after Federal Fuel Administrator Garfield had been summoned from Massachusetts to discuss the situation with Secretary Tumulty.

40,000 Ready to Quit
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 29.—Forty thousand union miners employed in 466 mines in West Virginia will quit work next Saturday, if the general strike order is enforced. Their idleness will cut the coal production of the state 3,400,000 tons a month. These figures, given out by coal mining interests, are disputed by union leaders, who claim 54,000 members of their organization in the state.

Will Close 1200 Mines
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 29.—If the strike of soft coal miners becomes effective Saturday, it will affect more than 40,000 miners in Ohio, will close down more than 1200 mines, and will stop an average daily production of nearly 250,000 tons of coal, according to officials of the United Mine Workers of Ohio.

Action on Coal Strike
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 29.—Executives of the United Mine Workers of America met here today to take final action on President Wilson's appeal that the nation-wide strike of bituminous coal miners ordered for November 1, be called off.

While it originally was planned to hold only a meeting of the executive board of the organization at this time, in view of the demand of President Wilson last Saturday that the strike order be rescinded, Acting President John L. Lewis broadened the scope of the conference. As a consequence 23 district presidents of the mine workers, the full scale committee composed of 32 members and the board of executives, comprising a representative from each of the 23 districts, are in attendance. All of

Two Rioters Killed, 10 Injured and 27 Policemen Hurt

Nationalist Demonstration—Against British Commission Headed by Milner

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Saturday, Oct. 25.—Two rioters were killed and ten others injured, and 27 policemen were hurt in a serious nationalist demonstration yesterday. The trouble arose when the police attempted to suppress a peaceable demonstration such as have recently been a weekly feature of political activity in Alexandria. Sticks, stones, bottles and police batons were first used. The arrival of the governor of Alexandria restored order for a time. Then two motor lorries with troops appeared on the scene and eventually shots were fired at the crowd.

Today there was some recurrence of the trouble, at the harbor side, but it was of a comparatively minor character.

CAIRO, Egypt, Saturday, Oct. 25.—Shouts of "we don't want the Milner commission" interrupted a band playing "God Save the King" at the public gardens yesterday, giving the signal for a nationalist demonstration.

The trouble was quelled by the authorities, who placed a number of students under arrest.

It was announced in London some time ago that the government was considering sending to Egypt a special commission headed by Viscount Milner, secretary for the colonies, in order to ascertain what changes were necessary in the constitution of the protectorate.

HORN FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Dynamiting End of International Bridge

FREDERICKTON, N. B., Oct. 29.—Werner Horn was found guilty today on the charge that he dynamited the Canadian end of the International bridge at St. Croix, on February 2, 1915. The jury was out only 13 minutes. Horn, who conducted his own case, said he was a German officer and acted under orders of the German government.

Horn claimed that as his country was at war with Great Britain, he was not amenable to civil law. It was the same plea virtually that he made four years ago in the United States court in Boston, when he was convicted of illegal transportation of dynamite in interstate commerce.

Deputy Sheriff George W. Ross of Vanceboro, Me., who was one of the witnesses for the crown, testified that Horn remarked after his arrest that he had tried to get back to Germany from the United States when the war began but could not get passage and was told by two members of the German embassy that there was work for him to do in America. Horn said, according to the witness, that he was then given a nitroglycerine bomb, the blue prints of the bridge and its surroundings and sent to St. Croix to blow up the structure. The attempt was not successful, the damage to the bridge being slight.

The indictment against Horn, on which his extradition from the United States was obtained a few weeks ago, alleged specifically "unlawful destruction and obstruction of a railroad, thereby endangering human life, committed within the protection of the British government."

EXPLOSIONS SET FOR NEXT SPRING

Six Held in Chicago in Connection With Big Radical Conspiracy

Plans for Series of Bomb Explosions Found in Raids

CLEVELAND, Oct. 29.—Discovery of a radical plot to spread terror throughout the nation by another series of bomb explosions next spring, was announced by the police here today, following the arrest last night of five men and one woman suspected of having planned the destruction of the Central police station.

Believing they are members of an anarchistic circle that has been working in more than 100 cities, the police questioned the group all night in an effort to learn details of their plans or the extent of their organization.

The arrests were made in four simultaneous raids, following information that an attempt was to be made to bomb the Central police station here. One of the men is believed by the police to have been active in bombing Mayor Harry L. Davis' home June 2 last.

With the prisoners the police captured a large quantity of high explosives, one complete bomb, several incomplete bombs, a number of automatic pistols, a supply of ammunition and much anarchistic literature.

The police believe the arrests will lead to apprehension in other cities in connection with the country-wide bomb outrages which occurred last May and June.

Detectives were sent from here last night and today to cooperate with police in other cities.

GARFIELD CALLED TO WHITE HOUSE

Federal Fuel Administrator Discusses Coal Strike With Sec. Tumulty

Confident Settlement Will Be Reached Without Walk-out of Miners

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Federal Fuel Administrator Harry A. Garfield discussed the threatened strike of bituminous coal miners today, with Secretary Tumulty at the White House. He was summoned here from Williams college, of which he is president.

Dr. Garfield, who still has authority to function as fuel administrator, said he was in close touch with the strike situation and expressed confidence that a settlement would be reached without a walkout of the miners.

Mr. Garfield would not discuss his conference with Mr. Tumulty, but his visit to the White House revived suggestions that the fuel administration might again be called into existence to exercise the war time control over fuel provided for in the Lever act.

While actively serving as administrator, Dr. Garfield was instrumental in bringing about the so-called Washington wage agreement, which expires April 21, 1920, or at the end of the war and which it has been contended would be violated if the miners strike. Secretary Tumulty said later Dr. Garfield had been summoned here so that the cabinet might have the benefit of his judgment and knowledge of the coal inquiry.

On leaving the White House, Dr. Garfield said he thought there was a way out without the necessity for resurrecting the machinery of the fuel administration. He expected to return home tonight.

LONG ENDS TESTIMONY

Leaves Washington After
Hearing on War Profits—
Graham Fails to Retract

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, failed to secure yesterday from Representative Graham, chairman of the house special investigating committee, a retraction of the statement accredited to him in a published interview that the R. H. Long company had made "exorbitant profits" as a result of war contracts.

At intervals during the day, whenever an opening appeared, Mr. Long would pound out this query to the Illinois republican representative. In the early hours Mr. Long's mein was very serious, and the manner in which Chairman Graham brushed the inquiry aside as irrelevant at the moment was alike severe and impatient. But as the hours wore on and the mellowing influence of association began to make itself felt, both the candidate and the chairman displayed less temper until at the last Mr. Long's question was almost playfully put and the chairman grinned good naturedly when he replied that the question still could not be answered until the committee had reached some conclusion as a result of the hearings.

This change of attitude on the part of Chairman Graham might have been due to Mr. Long's apology, when he took the stand yesterday morning, for the severity of the language in the telegram which was sent from the Long headquarters over his signature to Mr. Graham. This message so incensed Mr. Graham that he refused to examine Mr. Long then, but yesterday the chairman did about all of the questioning.

The examination yesterday was largely technical and related to charges for facilities, settlements of incomplete contracts and matters of book-keeping. Mr. Long constantly reiterated his statement that he gave the government better prices than had any of his competitors and that his settlements also were at a lower cost to the government than any other contractors in the country. Mr. Long answered all questions promptly in relation to his contracts and the settlement of his claims. The matters under examination were so involved that it appeared to be difficult for members of the committee to make much headway.

Mr. Long presented a request to the committee that they ask the war claims board to present a statement showing the percentage of cost for settling the R. H. Long contracts as compared with competitors and with contractors of other divisions; and also a statement showing the prices of the R. H. Long contracts as compared with all competitors. This statement, Mr. Long contended, would show that the R. H. Long company was the lowest contractor for the government in the United States, both for prices of articles and cost of settlements.

One of Mr. Long's favorite phrases during his examination was that his company did not get in its settlements with the government on canceled contracts "one-half its losses."

"From what you say, Mr. Long, I judge you were fast staggering toward bankruptcy," said Representative Graham.

"That is what it would look like," replied Mr. Long. "If I had a few years like the last I guess the sheriff would be looking for us. I might have to get a political job."

"Don't expect to get anything out of that except curses and abuse for trying to do your duty," commented the chairman.

In the course of the day's examination, Mr. Long said his war profits were less than 5 per cent. on the aggregate of his war contracts, which approximated about $35,000,000. Much time was occupied by the committee attempting to get from Mr. Long information relative to his claims for "special facilities." It developed that these were charged pro rata to the various contracts.

Mr. Long and his son left last night for Boston.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Donat J. Marchand and Miss Sylvia Boudreau were married this morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Joseph's rectory at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, O.M.I. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her father, Mr. Eugene Boudreau, while the bridegroom was attended by his uncle, Mr. Joseph J. Cinqmars. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and later the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Providence, R. I., Hartford, Conn., and New York. Upon their return they will make their home in Lynn.

Laurel—Guilmette

The marriage of Mr. William H. Lambert of 12 Pace street and Miss Alice Guilmette of 5 Grand street took place last evening at 6.30 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Leon Lamotte, O.M.I. The bride wore a taupe traveling suit with picture hat to match and carried bridal roses. She was given away by her father, Mr. Zephyrus Guilmette, while the groom's witness was his brother, Mr. George Lambert. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and later in the evening the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, St. Anne de Beaupre and Quebec. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

Pure Food Exhibition

tended and were cordially received by the store managers and the many demonstrators stationed about the store, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

In quality, at least, the exhibit easily ranked with the annual pure food show at Mechanics building, Boston, and limited floor space alone restricted the quantity. Samples were distributed freely, in fact, nothing could be purchased in the store, which remained open on its usual half-holiday just for the purpose of presenting its new departments to the paying public of Lowell.

The Fairbairn company takes justifiable pride in its latest development and not a modern feature has been overlooked in the entire equipment. From the bake ovens in the basement to the attractive show cases on the main floor, everything is arranged according to the most up-to-date ideas. Purity is the watchword and exceeding care has been taken to alleviate all possible barriers which might disturb the rapid, economical and efficient production of table delicacies and necessities.

Perhaps the new steam tables, by which the store will be able to offer hot lunches to take out at an instant's notice, received the closest inspection by the large crowds this afternoon. The tables are similar to those installed in large Boston delicatessen establishments and are thoroughly modern. The show cases in the new department were completely filled with tempting samples of the baker's art and received instant commendation.

The employees of the store did not limit their tours of inspection to the new department, but took many people through the meat-cutting rooms and through the bake shop in the basement. Everything in the store was there to be inspected and in such shipshape order as to submit to the most careful scrutiny and criticism.

Markham's orchestra played during the afternoon, while Decorator Chas. Young was present to receive many compliments upon his decorative work. Forty-five demonstrations were given, with the following firms and ar-ties being shown: Campbell's soups, American sugar, John P. Squier, Gold Medal Flour, Mrs. Chapin's salad dressing, Simonson's Py-Lemon, Mrs. Curtis' marshmallow cream, National Biscuit Co., Jiffy-Jel, H. J. Hines Co., Proctor & Gamble, Baker's Extracts, Rumford baking powder, Fletcher's tea, Chase & Sanborn's coffee, Armour & Co., Treetell, Champlin Co., Pillsbury's flour, Mueller's macaroni, Fairmount Creamery, Marigold oleomargarine, Beecham Packing Co., Corn Products refinery, Post, Vanilla, Chelmsford Spring ginger ale, Logan, Johnson Co., Friend Bros., Frank Foye (Bridal) Veil flour, Pudding, Meadowbrook butter, Stickney & Peers, Automatic flour, Fairbairn's bakery, Bay State Fish Co., Sunny Corn, Brad's bakery, Libby, McNeil & Libby, Old Dutch Cleaner (Cudahy Co.) and Aunt Jane's salad dressing.

Tomorrow the new department will be open for business as a part of the store and all the good things shown today will be included in the articles which may be purchased.

THE TRUTH

You are being asked by the deserting policemen of the city of Boston to believe that they were justified in doing what President Wilson called their "crime against civilization."

They plead with you that a strike was their only way to secure relief from what they call "intolerable conditions" and "an autocratic commissioner."

ASK THEM why their Grievance Committee wrote the following letter of appreciation to Commissioner Curtis on July 16th last—just six weeks before they struck:

"Dear Sir: We take this opportunity to thank you sincerely in behalf of ALL THE PATROLMEN OF THE BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT for the MANY VITAL AND IMPORTANT BENEFITS obtained and which were championed by you, including the non-contributory pension, corrections in the rule relating to unnecessary reporting by night men on their off days and excuses from different roll calls. WE DESIRE TO EXPRESS OUR DEEP SENSE OF GRATITUDE FOR YOUR EFFORTS IN OUR BEHALF IN OBTAINING THE INCREASE IN SALARY. With assurance of OUR HIGHEST CONSIDERATIONS AND ESTEEM, we remain * * *

in Police Strike—Says Radicals Beset Unions

NORTH ADAMS, Oct. 29.—The labor unions of the country are beset by radicals who would destroy them to clear the way to a class revolution, said Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania last night. The governor was speaking at a rally in the interests of Governor Calvin Coolidge's campaign for re-election. He said Governor Coolidge's steps to "uphold the sovereignty of the state" in the strike of Boston policemen, which, he said, in its relation to the future safety and well-being of the people of this republic, was as important as the affair at Concord and Lexington.

"Labor," said Governor Sproul, "as represented by the patriotic American workmen who, under sane and progressive leadership, have attained so much for themselves and have served the nation so well, is engaged in a battle to preserve its organizations from the radicals who would destroy them because they are in the way of a class revolution.

"It would suit these destructionists exactly if they could get hold of the forces of public safety in this country. The municipal governments, then the state governments and finally the national government would then be easy game. Upward and disorder are their opportunity. A few thousand organized cut-throats could terrorize the nation if the forces of protection were paralyzed. The policemen in Boston were the victims of the plan. They had no idea of being used to further a scheme of national destruction. The strike there was carried out in innocence of any wrong doing. I firmly believe, but I am just as thoroughly convinced that it was conceived in villainy and was to be a part of a general scheme to palsy the power of the government to protect itself. It is to the eternal credit of Massachusetts that you met the issue as you did.

INTERNATIONAL LABOR
CONFERENCE OPENS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—More than 30 nations were represented here today at the opening of the international labor conference created by the treaty of Versailles for the improvement and standardization of labor conditions throughout the world.

In opening the conference at noon, Secretary Wilson said he would designate the assembly as the "conference in the process of being organized" and by this interpretation he believes he abides by his contention that only those states which have ratified the treaty can participate in the official conference.

The program for today was outlined by the organizing committee called for addresses by Secretary Wilson and John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union; the report of Arthur Fontaine of France, chairman of the committee and organization of the assembly. Officers will be elected tomorrow.

The first question to come before the conference when it settles down for business on Friday will be the eight-hour day, and the 48-hour week.

Famo Stops Seborrhea the Dandruff
Disease

No other hair remedy even remotely resembles FAMO.

FAMO kills the dandruff germ and stops the unhealthy flow from the sebaceous glands.

Every ingredient in FAMO is well known to physicians.

Let none of these ingredients were ever before applied to saving the hair.

Science perfected FAMO in one of the oldest pharmaceutical houses in Detroit—famous for its laboratories which supply physicians all over the world with medical goods.

FAMO not only kills the seborrhea microbe but it makes the scalp and hair as clean as that of a baby.

It ends all itching of the scalp.

Even where baldness has already appeared (unless the hair roots are absolutely dead) FAMO will encourage and stimulate the growth of new hair.

Many women say FAMO has caused their hair to grow from four to six inches.

FAMO retards grayness and strengthens the natural color. It contains no alcohol to dry the scalp and produce gray hairs.

It makes the hair luxuriant and lustrous and if there is a tendency to waxy FAMO intensifies it.

FAMO should be used by every member of the family.

CONNORS—Walter, aged 10 months and 8 days, infant son of Norman and Mary Connors, died this morning at the home of his parents, 41 Lilley avenue. Burial took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers Amodeo Archambault & Sons.

FUNERALS

WARD—The funeral of Mary J. (Grant) Ward took place yesterday afternoon from the rooms of Undertakers C. H. Molloy's sons, 101 E. Main street, at 10 o'clock. The church was St. Columba's and the services were conducted by Rev. N. W. Matthews, pastor of the Graham street P. church. The funeral was well attended.

TALTY—The funeral of John Talty took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from his home, 11 Coburn court, Pawtucketville, and was conducted by Rev. J. J. Connelley, pastor of St. Columba's church where, at 10 o'clock, a funeral mass was sung by Rev. Francis McNeil. The church was under the direction of Miss Katherine Whaley, rendered the Gregorian mass, the solo being sustained by Miss Frances Tichie, Miss Whaley presiding at the organ.

There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes and of spiritual hymns. The bearers were Mr. Timothy Carney, Dennis Carney and John Carney. At the grave Rev. Fr. McNeil read the committal prayers and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

LOWELL ON THE WATER
WAGON AGAIN

Lowell is "dry" again today!

After holding sway for nearly three months, the "ol' 275" took the count last evening when, as a result of the passage of the prohibition enforcement bill making it unlawful to sell or manufacture any beverage containing over one-half of one per cent alcohol, local saloon-keepers closed their establishments until such time as the peace treaty shall be signed and the bar on wet goods possibly removed by presidential proclamation.

No orgies accompanied the demise of "275" in Lowell last evening. Business at the local bars showed no change from the usual, in fact the greater majority of the patrons who lined themselves up at the various bars seemed perfectly unaware that last night was indeed the "last night" for some time, and perhaps for all time, if the ban is not lifted before the day of January 17 when constitutional prohibition becomes effective.

A few liquor dealers, apparently unaware of the action of the senate yesterday afternoon when it passed the "dry" bill over the president's veto, opened for business as usual today, but soon closed their doors after being informed of the penalty of a prison sentence and heavy fine attached to keeping open. At noon today, so far as was known, there were no saloons or hotels in the city dispensing the 275 per cent beverage.

Although some dealers had stated their intentions of remaining open for the sale of "half per cent," the lightest featherweight of the "wets" have placed in the ring, none was offering that thirst-quencher to patrons today as far as is known. The majority of the proprietors of thirst parlors express the opinion that as a drink "half per cent" is inferior to a glass of tonic and would offer no profits to its sponsors.

Some of the saloon keepers, anticipating that the ban will be lifted by President Wilson within a short time plan to keep their operating forces intact and will spend the time between now and that future date in rearranging their stock and cleaning up generally. Others have locked up tight for the present.

The tourists tell at the rate of four cents a head. This year she asks six. When asked the reason, she replied, "Waterfalls is gone up." The Nation's Business for November.

Hold Strikers for Carrying Weapon

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The textile strikers in this city did not attempt to prevent the workers from entering the mills this morning although a large number of the strikers paraded through the mill town. Several were arrested for carrying weapons. It is said that about 40 of the strikers were wounded in yesterday's fighting, but five of them were taken away by their friends. The five who are in the hospital will probably recover.

KING'S TRIBUTE TO U. S. ARMY

"The Decisive Factor in Determining the Victory,"
Says King Albert

Belgian Ruler Makes Important Addresses in House and Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—King Albert of the Belgians paid homage in the house of representatives yesterday to the American army which he described as "the decisive factor in determining the victory." In an address to the senate a few minutes earlier he had asserted that "nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy than the friendship between his country and the United States."

The addresses of his majesty today were the longest and most important he has made in America. They were intended as messages to the entire nation and his sincerity in expressing the thanks of Belgium to Americans for their aid was plainly evident.

"I salute," he said to the senate, "not only the eminent men who received me here during the day, but I salute the memory of your great predecessors, who during one hundred and thirty years have sat in this place and given to the whole world the example of highest civic virtues. This welcome of the senate seals that reception, so warm and so spontaneous, I have received everywhere during my journey across this magnificent country. I am deeply moved by the expressions of sympathy that the name of Belgium evokes from this noble American people."

"Nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy than that friendship which unites the great republic with its one hundred and ten million citizens and the realm of which I am the constitutional head, with its seven and a half million inhabitants. There is no equality of power and riches between them there is equality in the love of liberty and in aspiration towards social progress. On both sides of the Atlantic the same ideal inspires us. The exchange of ideas, the commercial relations, the visits to Belgium of eminent American citizens, of whom many sit in this assembly, are so many means of lightening the bonds between the two nations."

"I hope with all my heart that these relations, which go back as far as memory, which have been fortified during the war as well as by the admirable assistance which you rendered Belgium by feeding her people and by fraternizing in arms, will never cease to develop for the great good of the two peoples."

The visit to the senate of King Albert and the Duke of Brabant lasted only half an hour, and they went immediately to the house. In his address there, his majesty said:

"I am happy to be able to bear to this chamber which embodies the living spirit of the American people, the greetings of Belgium, a democratic and parliamentary state, created by the vote of the popular assembly of 1830, which proclaimed the independence of our provinces."

"Our two peoples have fought and triumphed together. The intervention of the American army was the decisive factor in determining the victory. I pay my respects and sincere homage to the officers, the soldiers and sailors, who fell for a great cause on the battlefields of Europe and in the defense of the seas."

"The hearts of Belgians whom these heroes helped to liberate from the domination of the enemy go out in profound gratitude to the wounded. In their name, I address to the wounded of the great war the assurance of our affection and sympathy. I express the gratitude of Belgium to those distinguished American citizens who gave themselves with such a spirit of sacrifice to the task of lightening the sufferings of the Belgian people."

"In this noble assembly I solemnly thank the members of the commission for relief and the innumerable committees that helped it in its admirable efforts. I salute, in particular, the names, graven forever in our memories, of Herbert Hoover and Brand Whitlock."

"May this splendid American nation so richly endowed by nature, so magnificently served by its people, pursue in the serenity of its power, its work of achievement, of culture and of progress."

R. R. SHOPMEN VOTE ON SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—Officials of the four railroad brotherhoods and shop crafts today were taking a strike vote of the 1500 employees of the union railroad who operate trains in steel plants of the Pittsburgh district. The result of the vote will not be known until next Sunday and in event the men favor a strike they will be called out in sympathy with the striking steel workers, according to the brotherhood executives.

A statement in connection with the steel strike, addressed to Pennsylvania representatives in congress by the House of Representatives of commerce was made public here today. It expresses the opinion that American workmen are in favor of industrial peace but are interfered with "only by imported leaders or agitators and alien workmen." To remedy the situation the chamber urges the enactment of laws placing under government regulation combinations of employers and capitalists and of employees and labor organizations.

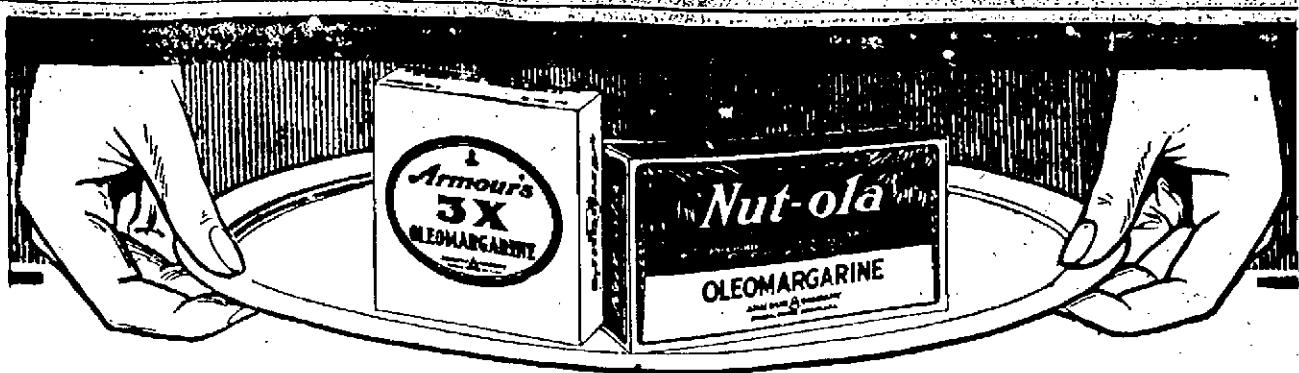

GOVERNMENT CREATIONS

Women's clothing prices are skyrocketing so in London that the government has decided to go into the trade of Worth, Paquin, et al. Half a million standard costumes and coat frocks will be manufactured under government supervision. This was done in 1918—perhaps the styles will be a revamp. Leeds has two million yards of material available for these "standardized" garments—but at that the cost price will be $15 or $20, as against $14 to $16 for similar garments last year.

Somewhat we shudder for the ladies—but then Paris is putting out "national" ready-made clothing at the rate of 25,000 suits monthly at 100 francs a suit (for the clothing house prices are up to 250 francs). So if the former French dandy and English beauty ever pass each other these days, possibly they will mutually avert an electrified glance.—The Nation's Business for November.

Which Do You Prefer?

BECAUSE both are made by Armour, you can use on your table and in your kitchen, either 3X Oleomargarine or Nut-ola nut margarine, and in either case be sure you are getting the best of its own kind. For, both are made in the world's finest exclusive oleomargarine plant and guaranteed in purity and quality by this big name in the pure food world—

Armour's

3X
Oleomargarine
Made Under Government Inspection

Pure oleo oil and neutral, highly refined vegetable oils, a good per cent of choice uncolored creamery butter and milk salted to taste from dairy farms under inspection of Board of Health—just these ingredients and nothing more are blended for 3X oleomargarine. And they are churned in our new tile-lined plant, where cleanliness is enforced in every detail.

3X Oleomargarine, made under Government inspection and under Government license, has back of it the quality guarantee that goes with the name of Armour.

Nut-ola
A Pure Vegetable Oil Product

Armour's Nut-ola is similar to the nut product used so largely in Europe. It is made only from highly refined coconut oil and peanut oil, pasteurized milk from inspected dairy farms, and salt—nothing more.

Perfect to such an extent in foreign countries, Armour has imported the processes complete. We even brought from Holland our electric churns and experts to operate them. So what is today offered as a new food in America has back of it four decades of use and manufacturing experience. Try Nut-ola. It proves the flavor you like.

PICTURE STORY OF THE ARCTIC REGION

The frozen northland of Eskimo, reindeer and terrible cold—with its Arctic wilderness of ice and snow was convincingly portrayed by Donald M. MacMillan, for many years an explorer in the Arctic regions, before a large audience at the First Universalist church last evening. During his lecture Mr. MacMillan showed many stereoscopic views of the land from which he recently returned after a four years' stay.

During his trip through the north Mr. MacMillan and his party covered 10,000 miles by sledge, living mainly on the game they could shoot, which consisted of musk ox, white bear, reindeer and wolves. These wolves are larger and more ferocious than the members of the species of our own northwest, he said, and will follow a man for miles in the hope of making him their prey.

The speaker described the Eskimos at some length. Eskimos do not live throughout the year in snow huts as is generally supposed, he said, but spend a greater part of the time in rock huts. They live principally on meat and birds' eggs. Although a most primitive people they are unusually healthy and clever, he declared, and usually ready and willing to assist exploring parties to the best of their ability.

NATIONAL TREND AWAY FROM MILITARY AND TOWARD DEMOCRACY IN JAPAN

TOKIO, Oct. 10. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Japanese press gives prominence to the fact that applications of Japan's young men to enter the military academy have diminished considerably during the past year. The remark is made this falling off indicates a national trend away from military and toward democracy.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Eugene Richard and Miss Lydia Lecuyer, both residents of Dracut, were married yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at 5 o'clock at St. Louis' church by Rev. J. B. Labesiere. The bride was attended by Miss Lydia Richard, a sister of the bridegroom, while the best man was Mr. Omer Lecuyer, an uncle of the bride. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, 48 Hamblett avenue, Dracut, and later the couple left on an extended honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will make their home at 476 Merrimack street, this city.

White—Sparks

Miss Edith M. Sparks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Sparks, last evening became the bride of Mr. William J. White, Jr., of this city. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride, 291 Wilder street, by Rev. J. M. Craig, D.D. There were no bridal attendants. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. White will make their home at 291 Wilder street.

IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

National Finance Was Topic
up for Debate Today—
Vote of Confidence

LONDON, Oct. 29.—National finance was the topic up for debate in the house of commons today, with the government facing probably as critical a body of members as ever in the history of parliament. More than a 100 members had given notice of a desire to speak, and all of them were understood to be prepared to belabor the government for its alleged waste and extravagance. Some of the government's keenest critics are among the supporters of the coalition, including such staunch unionists as Sir Edward Carson and Lord Robert Cecil.

The program called for the introduction this afternoon by Austin Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, of the official resolution drafted by the cabinet at Monday's meeting. The motion declares "that this house, realizing the serious effects upon the trade and industry of the nation of the enormous financial burdens resulting from the war, promises its hearty support to the government in all reasonable proposals, however drastic, for the reduction of expenditure and the diminution of debt."

This is counted as equivalent to a demand for a vote of confidence. Donald Maclean, for the independent liberals and W. C. Adamson for the labor party have tabled amendments which are virtually equivalent to votes of censure.

It is expected the debate will occupy the remainder of the parliamentary week. Both Premier Lloyd George and Mr. Bonar Law, the government leader, will speak in the government's defense. Winston Churchill, the war secretary, will defend the war office, against which some of the strongest charges of extravagance have been launched. Others of the ministers will probably offer defenses of their respective departments.

Notwithstanding the intense anti-government feeling in a large section of both the house and electorate, present opinion in political quarters is that the defeat of the government is unlikely.

Vote of Confidence

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The government last night received a vote of confidence in the house of commons.

The bill renewing the powers of the defense of the realm act was under discussion. Sir Frederick Banbury, having obtained the speaker's endorsement of a technical objection to the bill, moved its adjournment and the substitution of a new bill.

Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman, basing himself on the speaker's admission that the bill could be remedied in committee, refused to withdraw the bill, and made the question one of confidence.

The Banbury motion was then rejected by a vote of 283 to 77.

To Act on Coal Strike

those present, it was stated, will have a vote.

The delegates entered the conference with a full realization of the seriousness of their undertaking. On every hand they have been met with expressions of the grave consequences attaching to the threatened strike on the verge of winter.

Discontinuance of the production of coal would more effectively tie up the industries of the country than would a strike of any other body of workers and in addition such action would cause untold suffering among citizens of the country. Despite the frantic efforts of the railroads to furnish extra cars to the mines for transportation of what fuel is on hand, it will be impossible to provide an adequate supply for even a short period.

Up to the hour of the conference, miners' officials reiterated that they

Why Do French Women Always Look Young?

In France mothers and daughters look like sisters. How are the women there able to retain their youthful looks until long past middle age? Is it because they are much given to the use of mercolized wax? This wax possesses a remarkable absorbent property which quickly removes the fine particles of cuticle which are constantly dying and which are the immediate cause of an old-looking complexion. Thus the liver, healthier, younger, skin beneath is given a chance to breathe and to show itself. Try this treatment yourself. Most likely it will not require two weeks to make your complexion as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. Just one ounce of mercolized wax (all American druggists have it), usually does the work. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings.

were willing to negotiate with the operators, but said that the latter had showed no inclination to discuss the demands.

"For the first time in the history of the miners' wage conferences," Acting President Lewis said, "the operators have failed to offer a suggestion. Heretofore we have been able to sit down and present our side of the controversy and the operators their proposals."

Possibility of government operation of the mines has been advanced by some of the delegates who apparently were receptive to the idea. On the other hand, high officials of the organization scouted the idea of government control and added that they could not see what power could be exerted to make men work when they did not want to work.

"Practically 90 per cent. of the miners are members of the organization and directly involved in the strike," said William Green, international secretary-treasurer of the miners. Conscripting men to operate the mines would avail the government nothing as there would not be enough men to produce much coal."

Every district of the international organization of the miners was called upon to send representatives to the conference today except those of Canada.

CABINET AGREES

ON PLAN OF ACTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—How to deal with the soft coal strike if the miners, ignoring President Wilson's command to "stay on the job," walk out Friday night, was definitely agreed upon today at a two-hour meeting of the cabinet.

The plan of action was not disclosed, but it is known that the cabinet stood as one man for protection of the rights of the public which would suffer with the closing of the mines.

But, while steps already taken and which might be regarded as drastic, were approved, Secretary Lansing, who presided, brought word from the meeting that the situation was not hopeless. All day the belief had grown that the international executive board at its meeting today at Indianapolis would postpone the strike, at least.

Hop was expressed in some quarters that the strike would be called off by the men who had called it, but officials declined to say whether this was based upon information purporting to convey some idea as to the attitude of the unions.

Mr. Lansing would not say if any facts had been laid before the meeting to justify hope of averting the strike.

The railroad administration, it was learned, is putting forth every effort to move the coal already mined to districts where present stocks are running dangerously low.

Meantime government agents are taking a quick census and trying to find out how long the stocks on hand might last.

WOOL AUCTION SALES

LONDON, Tuesday, Oct. 28.—There were 9500 bales offered at the wool auction sales today. Bidding was active and prices were harder. Merinos and fine crossbreds gained five per cent and medium crossbreds 10 per cent. New South Wales greasy sold at 6s 2d, a record. Continental buyers were active and some buying for German account was reported.

THE TURKISH MANDATE

Constantinople Paper Complaints—Says Pres. Wilson's Illness Disaster

CONSTANTINOPLE, Saturday, Oct. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Unfavorable criticism has been caused by despatches from English and American sources to the effect that the United States will not accept either the Armenian or Turkish mandates.

In commenting on the situation the newspaper Vakit says: "President Wilson's illness is a disaster for us, as he is unable to carry out his plans. He has been apprised of our wishes for American help to maintain the integrity of our territory." It is pointed out that, so far, no American statesman or business man has been heard from relative to the Turkish mandate.

Republican Rallies

ers were on hand at both places but were not called upon owing to the brief time available.

At the Lamson Co. plant Mr. McDonald said that Mr. Long, democratic candidate for governor, was "availing" on his issues and that most of them were false, "designed to hoodwink the voters."

Referring to the graduated income tax which Mr. Long has been advocating in his campaign, the speaker said that the public was not being told that it would take a concurrent vote of the senate and house of representatives, with at least two-thirds of each body favoring it, before such a law could become effective. Then it would have to be signed by the governor and four years later be referred to the people on the initiative and referendum.

"Mr. Long is advocating a five-cent fare for Boston," said Mr. McDonald. "But he is not telling you that he was invited by the commission which is now studying the street railway problem in an effort to find a remedy for unsatisfactory conditions to appear before it and offer any suggestions he might have. He is not telling you that he has not yet accepted the invitation."

Mr. McDonald pleaded strongly for Americanism in the present campaign and said that he favored legislation which would send an immigrant to this country back to his home if he did not become a citizen within five years after his arrival here.

"You democrats are sick and tired of this administration at Washington. Why not register your protest at the state election next Tuesday?"

"Do you know that Richard H. Long has on his payroll six members of the Boston Police men's union who are touring the state campaigning for him? Mr. Long dares to do this when the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, Mr. Herbert, has openly condemned the strike of the police men."

"There has been some talk about what the republicans have done for labor at the state house. Within the past year we passed the 48-hour law for women and children as well as im-

BERLIN, Tuesday, Oct. 21. (By the Associated Press)—The League for the Protection of German Emigrants learns that the German colony in Mexico is taking measures to assist countrymen who desire to settle in Mexico. A committee formed by members of the colony is working with the German consul general at Mexico City. The committee in a communication calls attention to the financial difficulties of those arriving without funds. Sub-committees have been formed at Tampico and Vera Cruz to give advice and shelter to Germans arriving in Mexico. The same has been done in Mexico City by the principal committee, which has opened headquarters there.

SPARKS TALKS TO CAR SHOP EMPLOYEES

Hon. John T. Sparks, candidate for senator, addressed a big meeting of the employees of the Billerica car shops this noon and was listened to with much interest. At the close he was accorded a rousing ovation. Yesterday he addressed the employees of the Nashua paper mills in Pepperell, and last night held a big rally at the Centralville Social Club. The latter place was crowded to the doors. Mr. Sparks will conduct outdoor rallies at Pawtucket square and at Broadway and Wilett streets this evening.

Health Hints by Public Health Service

The following article, discouraging the handshake, is another of a series conducted by the United States public health service, by direction of Rupert Blue, surgeon general, U. S. public health service:

Did you ever make a diary of your fingers? Did you ever set down in black and white the things your fingers touch every day and did you ever consider the number of times daily that your unwashed fingers seek your mouth?

When surgeons discovered that it was their own infected fingers which carried germs into wounds they set about trying to discover a means whereby their hands could be rendered surgically clean, i.e., free from germs. The whole realm of chemistry was ransacked for agents which would disinfect hands, and the scrubblings and immersions to which they subjected their hands are even yet a tender memory to the surgeons of that period. But all of these efforts proved useless and at last in despair surgeons took to wearing rubber gloves which could be boiled, thus bringing to each patient, as it were, a fresh pair of sterile hands. In other words, try as you will you can't by any known method make your hands absolutely clean.

The great agent in the spread of these diseases whose causative organism is present in the secretions of the mouth and nose, is the human hand and if saliva was bright green we would be amazed at the color of our fingers. As a matter of fact most of us carry our fingers to our mouth or nose many times daily, there to implant the germs of disease which other careless people have spread about, there to collect a fresh cargo of infectious material to scatter for somebody else.

It is true that the germs of disease die quickly once they leave the human body, but what does the death of a few billion germs matter so long as the supply is copious and never ending.

What an enormous number of infected things we touch during the day, and how infrequent and cursory are the hand washings we perform.

We should all learn to keep our fingers out of our mouth and nose. Thus we limit the spread of the disease from these orifices at least. It is also desirable to discourage the practice of excessive handshaking, and help eliminate the danger of contracting disease from someone else who is not quite so careful in keeping his fingers clean. Why should not a courteous bow be a sufficient salute to our friends.

Questions and Answers

Q. Is it cruel to muzzle dogs?

A. No. The dog does not suffer and can easily be trained to feel perfectly at ease with his muzzle on. If all dogs in our country could be muzzled for a few years rabies would disappear. The dogs could then be unmuzzled without danger of the disease to man or beast.

Q. Why was pneumonia usually more fatal in army camps?

A. In camps where men live in close contact with each other an exceedingly fatal form of pneumonia sometimes develops. At such times the germ is probably handed on from one pneumonia case to another and grows in the human lungs until it becomes especially adapted to this kind of home.

FABULOUS AMOUNTS SPENT IN PRODUCING "THE EYES OF THE WORLD"

Audiences as a rule have little conception of the enormous sums of money that are expended on one big film production. To say that during the making of a picture a scene costing exactly $1000 and taking up on the screen the period of two seconds would seem a wild exaggeration. Yet no one would venture to argue the cost of the banquet scene in "The Eyes of the World," the stupendous film version of Harold Bell Wright's popular novel that will have its first showing at the Owl theatre on Monday next, Nov. 3.

To give the scene the atmosphere of a millionaire's home, elaborate preparations were made. The attention given to detail is emphasized in the floral decorations, which in themselves would seem to cost a small fortune. Digressing a trifle from the story, the film producers, cognizant of the opportunities such a scene provides for the sensational touches craved by all moving picture audiences, engaged a classic dancer, whose spectacular attire and graceful art have such an overwhelming effect on the audience that for the time being the story is almost forgotten.

A distinguished dancer of enviable reputation and one who has never before loaned her art to the motion picture enterprise, she accepted the attractive offer which the Clune Co. made her on the condition that her identity would not be disclosed.

Her dance covers a period not lasting over one whole minute on the screen, and the sum paid her would probably have even more effect on an audience than her sensational appearance on the screen, which invariably arouses curiosity as to who she is. But the secret is not to be divulged.

BANQUET AND DANCE ARMISTICE NIGHT

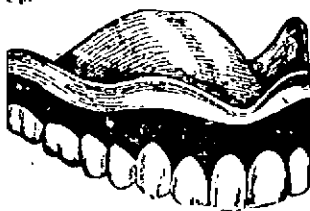

Further plans for the banquet and dance to be held on Armistice night were advanced at an enthusiastic meeting of Co. K Associates held last evening at the Community Service club. Chairman Charles A. Ganley of the entertainment committee spoke at length and assured the members of a most enjoyable event on that occasion and the meeting chose Capt. Jas. N. Greig as toastmaster for the affair. Former Sergt. John J. Magner of Norwich, Conn., was one of the out-of-town members present, while there were large representations from the 102d and 104th Infantry, 101st Engineer Train, 101st Military Police and the Fourth Pioneers.

SOLE HEIR TO ESTATE

Lowell Woman Prosecuting
Claim Through the Bristol
County Probate Court

TAUNTON, Oct. 28.—Elizabeth Robinson Carville of Lowell, is prosecuting a claim through the Bristol county probate court, to establish that she is the sole surviving heir-at-law to the estate of Elizabeth Robinson, who died in New Bedford, Feb. 15, 1918, and her interests are being looked after by James L. O'Donnell, Esq., a Lowell attorney. She says that she is the niece of the old lady, whose estate of some six thousand dollars was turned over to the treasurer and receiver general of the commonwealth in 1917 after an unsuccessful search by the court agents to find any heirs-at-law who might be entitled to it.

The initial proceeding was the filing in Taunton of a petition by Mr. O'Donnell, asking that Elizabeth Robinson Carville be appointed administratrix, and setting forth that the Lowell niece is the sole heir-at-law.

Miss Robinson, although she lived for years in New Bedford, was secretive as to her personal affairs, and cultivated no friendships to whom she told anything in regard to herself, that assisted the court in its search for possible heirs. Charles N. Sorpa, a New Bedford attorney and public administrator, settled the estate and after an unsuccessful search, in which he says he considered the Lowell woman, but rejected her claim to be a niece, the money was all turned over to the commonwealth.

That Miss Robinson was well-to-do was not dreamed of by the friends who had ministered to her wants during her last illness. After her death, when the bedding was removed, the space between mattresses was found to be stuffed with several thousand dollars in bank notes, a large part of them one dollar bills. Some of these had laid there so long that they were

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oregon, Ill.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which galled me down until I could not put my foot to the door and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me.

"I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work and I am so grateful that I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. D. M. ALTERS, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill.

Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Alters.

The letters constantly being published from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come:

THE STRAND

Romance and the glamor of beautiful girls contribute an exotic setting to "Lombardi, Ltd." in which, as Tito Lombardi, an eccentric Italian gown designer, Bert Lytell has one of the most picturesque roles of his career. This wonder-picture will be shown at the Strand for the last time this afternoon and night. See it by all means. It's interesting to the women folk, and most entertaining for the men. The young women models are shapely and strikingly handsome, while their gown creations are most artistic. Adorable Alice Joyce, appearing in "The Winchester Woman," is a picture play of extraordinary work. The revenue of the bill is up to the high standard of this theatre.

Beginning tomorrow and continuing the remainder of the week, Marge Kennedy in "Through the Wrong Door" and William Russell in "Sacred Silence."

OPERA HOUSE

Melodramatic productions of the superior grade, when handled and interpreted by a competent cast, rank with the very best of stock stage entertainment. This fact is forcibly and pleasingly brought out by the Lowell Players this week in their presentation of Mabel S. Keightley and Dorothy Potter's four-part play, "A Woman at Bay." It's a piece of unusual worth and has all of the live and interesting elements that go in the making of a first-class offering. Miss Marguerite Fields, the leading woman, is giving another demonstration of her brilliant versatility. The characterization of the role of "Nancy" the woman at bay, is certainly worthy of the many favorable things said of her in the past. The efforts of John Meehan and the others are also praiseworthy. Order your tickets well in advance for the remaining performances.

Next week the rollicking comedy hit, "Here Comes the Bride" will be presented. It's the first production of this place locally and is sure to meet with the approval of all.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"Five Thousand Dollars a Year," the cleverly written one-act comedy, is being featured at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, by a thoroughly competent company with Herbert Hysman, Virginia Mann and Francis Moray in the leading parts. It dwells upon the superiority of women's intuition to the carefully laid schemes of men. Kenman and O'Dare have a riotously funny act based on nothing in particular, and Eddie Barto and Florence Clark appear in one of the season's best novelties, "Columbia and Victor." Other acts on the bill are: Sterling Saxophone Four, Martyn and Florence, Warden Bros. and Althoff Sisters.

OBSERVE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Colburn of New Boston Village, Dracont, observed their golden wedding yesterday, and the affair although intended to be informal, was attended by nearly 100 friends and relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, who are well known and held in the highest esteem by the residents of the town, were showered with congratulations and appropriate gifts, including a purse of gold and 50 roses, the latter from the Dracont grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn were married in Lowell at the parsonage of the Worthen Street M. E. church, Oct. 28, 1869, by Rev. Mr. Whitaker. They spent a few years in this city and then moved to Dracont, where they have made their home ever since. Two children were born to the couple, Izella Colburn, who died several years ago and Chester B. Colburn, who has assisted his father in conducting a successful farm in the New Boston village. Mrs. Colburn is a past master of Dracont grange and at present is chairman of the organization. She is also overseer of the Pomona grange.

CANADIAN WAR VETERANS MEET

The Canadian Great War Veterans association of this city will wage a membership campaign, by which every soldier eligible for affiliation with the organization will be reached and urged to join the ranks. Preliminary plans were put forward at a meeting of the association last night and plans also were laid for the first reunion, entertainment and dance to be held at the Community Service club on the night of November 21.

The plans for the membership drive call for the division of the city into 12 districts and each will be canvassed in an attempt to get every returned Canadian or British soldier interested in the association. Twenty-five membership applications were considered last night and more are promised for the next meeting.

The best local talent available will be secured for the reunion and already Commissioner James E. Donnelly, Mrs.

Nettie Roberts and Miss Marion McKnight have promised to take part in the musical program. The committee in charge includes: Jack Waterhouse, president; Lewis Baile, J. Percival, Frank Carmen, J. Hurst, J. S. Davies, J. Higgs, vice president of the association, and E. Ireson.

Chemical concerns in Switzerland pay their married men 10 per cent above the salaries of the single men at the same work, and married men get 51 cents a week besides the 10 per cent increase, for each child under 15 years of age.

LOWELL EAGLE HONORED

David J. Hackett Appointed on Committee to Look After Welfare of Members

Worthy President David J. Hackett of the Lowell Aerie of Eagles was honored yesterday when at the convention of all the worthy presidents of the Massachusetts aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which was held at the Quincy house, Boston, he was appointed on a committee of ten to look after the welfare of all the members of the order in this commonwealth, which number 42,215. This is a five-year appointment which comes direct from the grand aerie. The other members of the committee are as follows: Mayor William A. Gleason of Brockton, Mayor Quinn of Cambridge, ex-Mayor Brown of Marlboro, William Shaughnessy of Southbridge, John Fox of Worcester, Charles Laird of Brockton, James Phelan of New Bedford, John Grant of Cambridge and State President J. J. Rice of Framingham. It is understood that the state will be divided into ten districts, each member of the committee to be assigned to the district nearest to his home.

At yesterday's convention Mr. Hackett brought up the matter of the proposed purchase of a home by the Lowell aerie and he informed his colleagues that the organization has now a building fund amounting to $45,000. He stated that one of the finest buildings in the vicinity of Merrimack square had been selected by the trustees of the aerie and all that is needed now for the deal to be put through is the sanction of the grand aerie. The Lowell delegate was informed that a committee would be appointed to look over the building and that within a short time if the site is desirable, an order will be issued authorizing the purchase of the property. Present at the convention were Grand Worthy Vice Presidents Frank E. Hering of South Bend, Ind., and Conrad A. Mann of Kansas City, representing the grand aerie of Eagles.

SURPRISE SHOWER

A pleasant surprise shower was given Miss Mae Flannigan, who is soon to be married, at the home of Mrs. John Carney, 51 Orchard street, last evening. The young woman received many gifts from her friends, including cut glass, linen and silverware. Mrs. John Carney and Mrs. Edmond Roy had general charge of the event.

HELD SPECIAL MEETING

The municipal council held a special meeting this afternoon to postpone the date of a number of hearings which were to have been held Tuesday, Nov. 11, to the following day owing to the fact that Nov. 11 has been declared a legal holiday by Governor Coolidge.

The housing situation in Berlin has become so acute that the municipality is renting cells in the old city jail.

NATURE'S MIKROK

When a woman is well and healthy—there's a sparkle in her eyes, a rose tint in her cheeks, and she has rich red blood. There's elasticity in every movement and a spring in her step. Love comes to every woman who has bounding health—but when she is pallid, dull eyed, languid, she has no magnetism nor does she appeal to any man.

Such a change in feelings and looks!

After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weaknesses of her sex—with eyes sunken, black circles and pale cheeks—such a woman is quickly restored to health by the Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce. Changed, too, in looks, for after taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the skin becomes clear, the eyes brighter, the cheeks plump. It is purely vegetable, contains no alcohol.

Druggists sell it in tablets or liquid. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for trial package.

BETTER THAN TWO DOCTORS

MRS. ROSE LAMARCHE

Two years ago I became acquainted with RED PILLS for pale and weak women. I started to take them as directed, and I owe my good health of today to their beneficial qualities. I have had eight children and four premature confinements. After the first years of married life, I became so weakened and in such poor health than I was unable to do my own work, as I had always done in the past. I went to see two doctors, followed their advice, but without results, my health was always the same. I then stopped taking their medicine and put myself solely under the influence of RED PILLS for pale and weak women; fifteen boxes did the work and restored me to good health, which is saying that I owe them more than I can ever repay. My little girl now takes RED PILLS and whenever needed, I will be sure to take them again also.

Mrs. ROSE LAMARCHE,
5 Laval Place,
Lowell, Mass.

RED PILLS are for women only.
They are always sold in boxes of fifty pills, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. See that the name of the "France American Chemical Company Limited" is on every box.

BACK AFTER DARING VISIT TO PETROGRAD

HELSINGFORS, Tuesday, Oct. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Lieut. Col. Lestrang Malone, a Liberal member of the British house of commons, has returned after a daring unofficial visit to Petrograd. He told friends here that he was convinced, after an investigation of the political and military situation of Russia that it is improbable that Petrograd will fall this winter. He said that reports of dissension among the Bolsheviks were untrue and that Lenin and Trotsky appeared to be working in entire accord. He saw Trotsky review thousands of soldiers, who enthusiastically hailed him as "a divine leader." Colonel Malone said that the Bolsheviks asserted that General Denikine had lost the confidence and support of the allies and had reached an understanding with General von der Goltz and Col. Bermont, heading the so-called West Russian army, composed largely of Germans in the Baltic provinces. Col. Malone entered Russia from Riga, passing through Estonian lines.

Make Nation Bone Dry

United States were legally open today for the sale only of beverages containing less than one half of one per cent alcohol. Sale as well as manufacture of beverages of more than that amount of alcoholic content laid the saloon keeper as well as the brewer or distiller liable to heavy penalties. But despite its drastic provisions, the law could not touch the man who laid up a supply in his own home for his own use.

Internal revenue agents entered on their task of enforcing law with the requested aid of law-abiding citizens, churches, civic organizations and well-to-do societies. In announcing his plans for enforcement of the war time act, Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper called on such agencies and individuals and on state, county and municipal officials for assistance. Open violation of the law, Commissioner Roper asserted would bring certain discredit to the American form of government.

The internal revenue bureau will be backed up by the department of justice which will conduct the prosecution from evidence obtained by the bureau's agents.

The vote to override the president's veto was 65 to 20. The vote of the New England senators on the measure follows:

10,000 REFUGEES LIVE IN BOX CARS

IRKUTSK, Siberia, Oct. 6.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Ten thousand refugees from the Ural mountain districts of European Russia and Siberia, have for weeks filled the yards of Irkutsk with their railway cars. Forced to flee from their homes in cities of western Siberia because of the menace of the Bolsheviks, they took refuge in the railway cars provided by the Omsk government and started eastward. Irkutsk, midway between Omsk and Vladivostok has felt the full impact of the enormous tide of refugees. Thousands have been sent on eastward but there still remain in and around this district an extraordinary number of people who have no homes but box cars or hovels somewhere along the railroad line.

A week ago it was estimated by an officer of the American railroad corps, which is attempting to rehabilitate the trans-Siberian service, that no fewer than 35,000 cars of refugees were amassed in and around Omsk.

Nearly 1000 families of railway workers are now living in box cars in the Irkutsk yards.

Poor women of Petrograd have to go round without stockings for lack of these articles in Russia.

Coughed So He Couldn't Sleep

Bronchial coughs, tickling in throat and asthmatic spasms break one's rest and weaken one so that the system is run-down and serious sickness may result. Enos Hallbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I had a severe cold this fall, coughed continually at night, could hardly sleep. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, ending my cough. THIS IS AMERICA

This is America.

"The American spirit of fair play demands that in these industrial disputes the government—be it state or federal—keep its hands off, and allow the parties to fight it out."

"It is not law and order to take drastic measures to prevent crimes from being committed—but sheer carism."

"The function of government is to protect the weak against the strong."

"The time for the open shop is past."—The Come Back.

"The Come Back" is a paper published every Wednesday in the interest of the soldier patients and enlisted personnel at the Walter Reed Army General Hospital, Washington, D. C., by the authority of the surgeon general of the army.—This is the announcement at the head of the editorial column of the paper quoted.

It is a soldiers' paper and means well; but in the quotation given above it favors the "closed shop" throughout the country and objects to any interference by the government when a strike occurs and the strikers refuse to let anybody take their places.

The writer may have meant well when he objected to government interference in labor disputes, but he should remember that the government never interferes except to enforce law and order and to protect the rights of the weak against the strong. If men in private industry decide to go on strike they are within their rights; but if they interfere with the operation of the factories they have left or even if they undertake to wreck those factories when they find others taking their places, they are not within their rights and the factory owners are entitled to government protection against such violence.

Yet "The Come Back" would allow them to fight it out unless we misunderstand its words, and we certainly do not wish to misrepresent the paper or the editorial writer.

When he says that "the time for the open shop is past," he makes a statement that is not in accord with the principles of our constitution. The labor unions are fighting for the closed shop; but while some employers favor that arrangement and others the open shop, their preference in both cases is to be respected.

It is well to have clear ideas on these matters and to remember that the glorious constitution under which we live guarantees equal rights to all and special privileges to none. It is easy to advocate dangerous principles which if carried to their logical conclusion would overthrow our liberties. And so we say to the editor of "The Come Back" that it is the duty of the government to interfere in labor disputes where either side attempts to trample upon the rights of the other and further that there is no law to force the closed shop on those who do not want it any more than there is or can be a law to compel a man to belong to a particular political party or to one religion in preference to another.

It seems strange that there should be any misconception upon a principle of justice so plainly fundamental. True, "This is America," says the editor of "The Come Back," and because it is America, the doctrine favors can never be sustained by law. The soldiers who served in the world war are the hope of this nation today and can be relied upon to defend the flag in every emergency; but it is very important that they do not get led astray by some of the plausible yet dangerous delusions of the hour.

FOR POLITICAL CAPITAL

It seems that the republican committees of the national house appointed to investigate certain expenditures of the war, have had a rather hard time of it. After five months of arduous labor, it is understood that they have failed to uncover a single scandal or any proof of the alleged "frightful inefficiency" which they promised to disclose. Congress has failed to pass any important legislation during the present session and but for the fact that President Wilson appealed to them to remain, the members of the house would have gone home on vacations. But they have held back their report, probably because they have failed to find what they have been searching for. By postponing their "revelations" to the regular session, they may give the public the impression that they have found something extremely rotten.

Representatives Royal C. Johnson and Oscar E. Bland were the republican members of the committee who went to France and cabled back attacks on General Pershing because he would not unload all his papers from the steamer hold on the day before he sailed for America, although they had a fortnight in which to examine him. General Pershing has been in America more than a month and the investigators nearly the same time, yet not a move has been made to examine him in Washington, though he professed his willingness to appear at any time.

Chairman William J. Graham of the committee has directed the ordinance sub-committee in and around Chicago to find out about contracts and settlements in that locality, some irregularities on the part of under-officers, not the administration, having been alleged. The camps and cantonments sub-committee is about to inspect some of the training encampments in the south and middle west, although the military affairs committee recently did the same thing.

The sub-committee on aviation, headed by James A. Prear, will return to New York presumably to retract something said about John D. Ryan, head of the aircraft division for the last six months of the war. Mr. Ryan demanded the right to appear before the committee and add further refutation that he had nothing to do with the construction of a railroad extension for the hauling of spruce, one reason being that at the time of its construction he was not in the government service. Col. Brice P. Disque, who superintended the job of getting out the spruce for airplanes in the northwest, will also appear to try to get into the record some of the answers to inquiring questions that Mr. Prear barred out during the Pacific coast junket.

The report of this committee will doubtless be withheld until the approach of the republican national convention at which its work will be stirred up by divers muckrakers, even though the material be confined to minor mistakes due to the haste which was imperative in order to meet the demands of the war.

The scandals of the Spanish war conducted by republicans were greater than anything this committee can find in its investigations into the management of the recent world war of which the former would form but an insignificant skirmish.

JAPS INVADE INDIA

England is having trouble with the Japanese just as is the United States and she is likely to have more of it in the coming years.

The Japs are becoming very active and very numerous in India, which has long been the chief source of supply for England and at the same time her great outlet for manufactured goods.

The Japanese have established textile factories in their island empire and are ready to turn out products which will undersell those of any other country in the world. Although seven years ago there were very few Japs in India, at the present time there are over 200,000 and they are multiplying faster than any other race on earth. Japanese merchants go into the cotton fields of India and purchase the crop, take it to their home factories and later offer the manufactured fabrics for sale to the people of India.

This is the very thing that England has been doing for a great many years and it certainly displeases John Bull to find that his favorite colonial preserve is thus invaded by a rival nation.

The extent of this invasion may be judged from the fact that in 1916-17 the value of Japanese imports to England was $44,000,000 and in 1918-19 the amount was $111,666,665 or one-fifth of India's total. Formerly Japanese imports were carried in British ships and the financial transactions were done through British banks, but now the Japs have their own ships and their own banks, so that they are apparently equipped to compete successfully with England in the markets of India.

The British people will not relish this state of affairs, even from an ally to which Britain offered to throw a big slice of Chinese territory. The Shantung agreement is largely the work of England under a secret treaty made before we entered the war and it was made not only to secure the friendship of Japan during the war, but afterwards. Japan, however, wants an outlet for her teeming population. She is crowding her people into Siberia, into China and now they will flock to India where they will form a colony to stand first of all for the homeland and against British interests in India. What is taking place in India is but a sample of what would take place on the Pacific coast of this country if Japanese immigrants were freely admitted.

PREVENTION OF CRIME

"Severity in punishment is what we need," asserts Judge M. A. Kavanagh of Chicago, "instead of the plentiful instances of mercy and parole that encourage criminals to repeat."

There is some ground for the judge's statement as may be seen here in Massachusetts, particularly in the treatment of juveniles. They are coddled and paroled through a desire not to give them a criminal record, even when the criminal propensity is quite pronounced and is freely exercised.

By the present method, the boy is shielded from real punishment for the crimes he commits, until he has become a full-fledged and habitual criminal. Then the penalties provided by law have no terrors for him. Much of the ineffectuality of this punishment is due to the fact that for one criminal punished for a crime of a particular class, fully ten escape. This explains why the severity of the penalty does not seem to lessen the number of crimes. The punishment does not fall with certainty on guilt. The fault lies not in the penalty, but in the legal machinery that fails to apply the penalty in a great proportion of cases.

Take murder for example. Here in Massachusetts we stick to capital punishment which is right; but so many murderers escape conviction through the inefficiency of the police or the application of legal chicanery by lawyers, that burglars, bank robbers and highwaymen, feel that they can commit murder with a reasonable chance of escaping conviction.

So long as they have this feeling, just so long will they be ready to take a chance if by so doing they can attain some criminal end.

Where the death penalty has been abolished, of course, there is less to deter criminals from committing murder, but it might almost as well be abolished as retained and applied only in a very perfunctory way.

SUGAR COATED JUSTICE

A New York candy manufacturer was fined $100 after being found guilty on a charge of coating "monthly, musty, sour almonds with candy and coloring matter." The candy factory was working on a million-pound contract order.

At present candy prices, surely a manufacturer can be honest with his customers and still turn a fair-sized profit. But that isn't the point we wished to make. The punishment was wholly inadequate. Fining a wealthy food manufacturer a trifle like $100 when convicted of adulterating food is as foreign to justice as slapping a gunman's hand with a ruler by way of punishment. A good, stiff dose of prison confinement might effect a cure; no $100 fine will.—N. E. A.

We haven't seen anything yet to support the talk of some pessimists that this is going to be a very severe winter.

Avoiding Trouble

She was the sort of woman who always tells everybody her business. With a cheery smile, she settled herself at the counter of the hostler's shop and began:

"My husband has just been very ill—very ill indeed. So I have to do his shopping, and I want a shirt."

"Certainly, madam," said the assistant, courteously. "Stiff front and cuffs?"

"O, no," she exclaimed, in horrified tones. "The doctor says he must avoid anything with starch in!"—Dallas News.

Tom Brewster says coal labor troubles are caused by the coal miners. John Lewis says they're caused by the coal operators.

But better informed individuals insist that neither the operators nor miners really started the labor difficulties.

The trouble began back in the carboniferous times when the folks were too lazy to rake up the leaves and other vegetable matter in the fall and burn them.

What these old timers did was to let the leaves fall and stay on the ground year after year. They never mowed the weeds, nor cut the grass, just letting everything grow wild.

All they ever did was a grind stone hatchets to throw at each other.

After 675,597 years the leaves on their front lawns (and elsewhere, for that matter), had piled up so high old Hatchet Face and his family moved to higher altitudes where the wind blew the leaves away.

Gradually earthy sand and such stuff accumulated on the thousand layers of vegetable matter (that's what scientists call leaves, etc.) and peat was formed. Then Mother Earth took the notion to cover the rubbish heap and turned over some mountains upon the peat.

In another few hundred thousand years it was coal.

All of which proves that if the old timers had raked up their leaves, kept their lawns mowed and jungle weeds cut down, and burned, there never would have been any coal formed.

And if there hadn't been any coal, there wouldn't be any operators to hire miners, and if there were no miners there would be no coal labor trouble.

But at that, we guess the smart operator could find some excuse for increasing the price of coal Nov. 1.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

In connection with the drive to obtain funds here for the Roosevelt Memorial association which came to a close Monday an interesting example of the difficulties which local theatre managers meet almost weekly, in trying to serve the public in the best possible manner, was brought to light. Of course, the essence of the Roosevelt campaign was to raise money for the erection of a memorial to the distinguished American. A tag day was held, school children were given an opportunity to contribute and the theatre managers were called upon to do what they could. It was suggested that they allow the campaigners to go through the aisles of the theatres during the performances for several days to collect contributions. This immediately met stout opposition from the president of the Theatrical Managers' association who said that it was the policy of the association not to impose on patrons of local theatres unless the cause were an absolutely urgent one. He said that if people once get the feeling that they are being beggled into the theatres to give more money after they have already paid the price of admission, it will mean the ultimate ruin of the houses that cater to this sort of thing. When the war was on and it was absolutely necessary that money come rapidly and without stint, the managers willingly threw open their houses to collectors for various funds. The Roosevelt affair, however, was supposed to be of a wholly voluntary character and the association felt that money could be collected in other ways than by embarrassing people at a time when they were seeking pleasure. The association readily agreed to place contribution boxes in the theatre lobbies to allow patrons to make voluntary contributions on their way in or out but as for "passing the hat" before a theatre full of people, the president could not see it. He was willing to have speakers given an opportunity to present their claims from the stage as often as they wanted to and most of the theatres were willing to run slides to help along the cause. But the majority of the theatre men felt that their first duty was to their patrons and that is why there were no general collections in the local theatres for the Roosevelt fund.

great source of experience for the many amateur gardeners of the district, for it has taught them how to grow vegetables and weeds at the same time, very little of the former, but a great deal of the latter. In other words, although this little patch was set aside for the sole purpose of showing those interested how to raise cabbage, beans, lettuce, turnips, radishes, corn tomatoes, onions, beets, etc., on a patch 25 feet square, one of the finest demonstrations of hay raising ever seen in this part of the country was staged.

The small part was set aside from the lot assigned to a resident of Riverside street. The latter, who by the way spent about 50 years of his early life on the farm, was shown just how to plant the seed in scientific way and he was instructed to watch the progress of the garden, while at the same time being assured that the immense crop to be raised on his land would later become his property. This party had planned to plant and raise tobacco on the small patch, and it may be said that he is an expert in this particular line, but his plans were set aside for the benefit of other gardeners.

Mr. Farmer, as we may call him, watched the great progress of the demonstration garden and every time he looked down upon the variety of herbs growing in the little patch he smiled. I had forgotten to state that when the garden was planted some demonstrators "armed" with a tape measure spent a half day taking measurements to make sure that the seed were buried in the proper way.

and these were the only precautions taken for nothing more was ever formed than the anniversary of the birth of both John D. Long and Theodore Roosevelt, and that the former was the secretary of the navy while the latter was his assistant at the outbreak of his war with Spain. If Mr. Long had been alive Monday to celebrate his 81st birthday, he would have been one of the happiest men in the country because of the wave of prohibition which has swept over the land. Mr. Long was more than a mere "temperance man"—he was a teetotaler. For years he was the leading spirit of the Massachusetts Total Abstinence society.

$20,000 FIRE IN DRACUT

Farm Buildings Wiped Out
Together With Contents,
Including Livestock

Fire destroyed the farm buildings of Bert A. Cluff, in Bridge street, Dracut Centre last evening and in addition 20 head of cattle, several pigs, hens, a Reo touring car and truck as well as farming implements, and several tons of hay were consumed by the flames, the total loss approximating $20,000.

The fire was discovered shortly after 7 o'clock by Eugene C. Fox. He quickly sent in an alarm, but owing to the lack of water the firemen and volunteers, who responded, were unable to fight the fire, which soon consumed the barn and its contents and communicated to the large house adjoining, which was also soon razed to the ground.

The farm was originally owned by D. N. Cluff, but since his death a few years ago it was conducted by the son, B. A. Cluff in conjunction with his own. The farm building was occupied by Mrs. D. N. Cluff and her family up to about two weeks ago when they removed to Lowell.

Mr. Cluff stated last night that his loss would be about $20,000 divided as follows: Buildings, $8000; automobiles, $2000; cattle and livestock, $3000; hay and farming implements, $7000. There was but a small amount of insurance on the buildings.

TEWKSBURY NEWSWork on Town Hall Progressing—Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lee of Lee street, Tewksbury Centre, kept open house at their home last evening on the occasion of their golden wedding and a great number of their friends and relatives called to congratulate them and extend to them their best wishes. The venerable couple were showered with appropriate gifts among which was a purse of gold containing $250, and other suitable souvenirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, the latter formerly Miss Mary Elizabeth Farmer, were married in North Tewksbury, Oct. 23, 1869, by Rev. Richard Tolman. They were both born in Tewksbury. Mr. Lee in 1847 and Mrs. Lee in 1845. Mr. Lee was a tanner by trade and conducted a successful business for himself in his home town up to about 30 years ago when he retired.

Five children were born to the couple, Mrs. Wilbur Patten, Miss Harriett Lee, Mrs. Walter Goodwin, all of Tewksbury and Messrs. George and Frederick W. Lee, both of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are also the proud grand parents of eight grandchildren. They are both prominent members of the Twentieth Century club of Tewksbury and of the Elliot church of this city.

New Town Hall

Work on the erection of the new town hall in the Centre village is progressing rapidly, considering the difficulties encountered by the builders, J. Nicholson & Son of Boston in securing help. The brick work on the auditorium is finished and workmen are now putting on the roof over that section of the building. The construction of the front section of the structure is not progressing so fast, however, but it is expected that within a short time work will be started on the construction of the tower and if the weather does not interfere and providing also that it is possible to retain the help, the job will be rushed along.

For New Church

A novel entertainment for the benefit of the building fund of the Centre Congregational church will be held this evening in Pickering hall, Centre Village. This will be in the form of illustrations thrown on the screen by Rev. Mr. Mason, pastor of the church. The affair is entitled "Snapshots By My Kodak as Others See Us." It was learned yesterday that Rev. Mr. Mason has been kept busy during the past month or so taking snapshots of prominent residents of the town as they appeared on the streets and that these small photos will be enlarged and thrown on the screen. Great interest is being manifested in this novel entertainment.

The members of the church are still worshipping in Pickering hall and it may be that the contract for the erection of the new church building will not be given out until next spring, for after plans were submitted for the new structure it was found that the church fund was not large enough to warrant the granting of the contract at present. It is being planned to con-

Don't Neglect
Your Breakfast

The Fear of Indigestion Often Prompts One to Start the Day
Wrong. Eat What You Like,
Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia
Tablet And You're Safe.

Breakfast offers many of the most savory dishes of all the things we eat. And yet more people than otherwise go without breakfast save a roll and cup of coffee for fear of indigestion. If you like a fried egg, or some buckwheat or sausage for breakfast go to it and follow with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. You'll have no trouble. The average person who neglects breakfast will be hungry before noon. Most men smoke to kill the appetite, or munch on something to carry on till lunch time. An empty stomach undigested food is not storing up energy, but on the contrary, is susceptible to many influences that may work hardship for the next meal. It is advisable to eat three good meals a day and digest them. If the stomach seems to be weak, to help it or give it assistance in the rational thing to do is to take a good breakfast and follow it with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you'll soon learn that regularity of meals follows a natural tendency, not an acquired one. You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale in almost all drug stores throughout the United States and Canada.

duct a number of social events during the winter season in an endeavor to swell the building fund.

An Old Landmark

Employees of the park department of the town are now busy removing an old landmark in the form of an old elm tree at the entrance of the new town hall. This tree, which is believed to be over 100 years old, measures about 3 1/2 feet in diameter and was the pride of that section of the town, but its condition lately has been such that the authorities have deemed it advisable for the safety of the public to cut it down. It is expected the tree will yield several cords of good lumber.

Building New Road

Under the direction of the highway commissioners a gang of laborers is employed in laying a macadam road between Silver lake and Tewksbury. This stretch of road has been in a very bad condition for a long time and those who have occasion to go over the thoroughfare will be grateful to the town and highway commissioners when the improvements are completed. The town and highway commissioners are each paying half of the expense.

Heck a Social

A social and entertainment was conducted recently by the members of Tewksbury grange and the affair was largely attended. The affair was held in Pickering hall and proved most enjoyable. Entertainment numbers were given by talent of the grange and a buffet luncheon was served. The arrangements were in charge of the entertainment committee.

Invitation cards have been sent out for the wedding of Mr. William Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett of North Tewksbury and Miss Ethel Harris of Jenness street, Lowell, the ceremony to take place Nov. 1 at the First Presbyterian church in Lowell. Mrs. J. Geream of Bethlehem, N. H., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alder King of the Centre village.

Mrs. Wilbur Patten of the Centre village, who recently underwent an operation is convalescing and is now able to enjoy a short automobile ride daily.

Miss Ella E. Flemings, principal and teacher at the Foster school, has tendered her resignation, which will take effect Nov. 10. Miss Flemings will make her home in Lowell with her brother, Charles Flemings, whose wife died recently.

With the close of the active building season the United States faces a housing shortage equal to the needs of 4,000,000 people.

THE PROMOTION OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP

Managers and employees of the Lowell and Lawrence branches of the H. V. Greene Co. of Boston gathered at the Harrington hotel Monday evening to enjoy an excellent dinner and a happy program of post-prandial exercises, whose aim was promotion of good fellowship.

The Lowell men were the hosts, arbitrarily made so by the stipulations of a rival campaign for business, which said that the losing branch should entertain the other at dinner. It was a week's campaign for clients and Lowell lost out by the proverbial eye lash. Thirty-two employees sat around the attractive tables and considered and pronounced good one of Mr. Harris' best menus. Orchestra music added pleasure to the banquet.

Clarence E. Carter, Lowell manager, filled the role of toastmaster most graciously and conducted an informal program of after-dinner talks and anecdotes. Singing was not forgotten, and the banquet wound up with "Auld Lang Syne" and "Till We Meet Again."

The banquet room at the hotel was decorated in seasonable colors of black and yellow, while cornstalks, pumpkins and Halloween features added to the attractive scheme.

EMPLOYEES ORGANIZE

The first meeting to organize the employees of the Helms Electric Co. was held Monday evening in the quarters of Lodge 133, I. A. of M. and 13 applications for membership were received. Considerable business was transacted and the meeting was addressed by Organizers Larkin and McCabe.

HEAD OF TRAINMEN CONDEMNS STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Strike of trainmen in the Chicago Switching district, called by local union leaders for Thursday unless certain wage demands are granted "in full," would be "wholly unauthorized and without the sanction of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen," it was said here last night by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood. The proposed strike, Mr. Lee said, was "nothing more than an attempt to discredit the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen."

Mr. Lee said two officials of the Brotherhood attended the meeting said to have been held Sunday night at which it was announced by local union leaders, the strike was decided on. These officials, however, Mr. Lee said, had no knowledge of any decision to call a strike.

Mr. Lee and the general committee of the Brotherhood will confer today with Director General Hines on the union's wage demands which are about to be decided. Mr. Hines has had the recommendations of the board of railway wages before him for two weeks, but whether he has been able to reach a decision in the rush of work incident to the threatened coal strike has not been revealed.

The Call-em

If any two college football eleven in the country deserve the title of champions, the palm should go to Dartmouth and Colgate. Neither outfit has been able to slip into the schedules of Harvard or Yale, but despite this handicap from the circles of the elite, they have managed to draw up rather hefty programs. Of course, neither the Crimson nor the Blue would think of going through a schedule which calls for five or six real games in a row, because each exists mainly for the purpose of crushing Princeton and each other. For instance, consider the big Green team of this fall. After meeting Penn State at Hanover a week ago last Saturday and winning, 19 to 15, they journeyed to the Polo grounds last week-end and drove back Cornell, 9 to 0. Next Saturday the powerful Colgate team is met at Hanover; on the following Saturday the University of Pennsylvania will be faced, and on the next Saturday, Brown at Fenway park.

No Chance for Rest
Even in the same measure has Larry Hankhart's Colgate team overloaded its schedule with tough games. In their season to date they have met and conquered in succession, Brown, Cornell and Princeton. Next Saturday, as has been said, they meet Dartmouth, and on the following Saturday they face Harvard at 15, Springfield. If Bob Fisher and Dr. Sharpe think they have worries to prepare their respective eleven for hard games at the end of the season, how about Spears and Bankhart, who have no easy games in between to serve as breathing spells? Brown held Harvard to a 7 to 0 score, and we venture to say that Robby's team will break apart against Dartmouth's attack at Fenway.

The Big Three
The three veteran drivers of the harness racing game, Murphy, Cox and Geers, finished in that order as money winners in the 1919 grand circuit campaign. Murphy drew down more than $24,000 in purses, Cox $17,000 and Geers $12,000.

FOR THE SWEET TASTE

A Rare Rich Table Syrup of Fine Flavor

You will like Domino Golden Syrup. It is pure, clean cane product—very different from any syrup you ever tasted.

It is flavored with just a dash of the delicate taste of the cane. Sweet and tempting—not too sweet. So pure and wholesome you can eat it at every meal.

A fine food for children. They can drink it, and it will not hurt them! A treat for all the family. A delicious spread on bread, biscuit, cakes and waffles.

Domino Golden Syrup is a table delicacy of the highest grade. Rich, golden amber in color—well-bodied, neither too thick nor too thin.

In two sizes—13 oz. and 25 oz. cans. Be sure and ask your grocer for Domino Golden Syrup. It is made by the American Sugar Refining Company, refiners of Domino Package Sugars—Granulated, Tablet, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown—Adv.

Geers $12,000. "Pop" might have been paid nearer the other two had not a bad cold and resulting injuries at Syracuse kept him off the track for several weeks. When he did come back it was late in the season, so most of his total was gleaned during the earlier months. He was a high money horse of the campaign, while Mignola, Cox's Frank Dewey and several others were always in the running.

Looking for a Bruise
It is said that Red Vigeant, who boxed Pal Reed at Lawrence last Saturday and went down for the count in the fourth round of the milling, wants another chance at him. Why he should exhibit such a lack of common sense is hard to imagine. Reed is too heavy for him and his much too hard. He is not clever, not by a long shot, but Vigeant is even less adroit, and another bout would be useless repetition.

Dundee's Gloves Still Flying
Echoes of that Dundee-Kloby fight, by the way, keep drifting in and it seems to be the general opinion that Dundee has a boxer been forced to take such a sweet lacing as Tommy did on that afternoon.

All-Stars Cost Too Much
When someone spread the news after the Lawrence all-star show, that the Cuddy boys lost money on the venture, many who heard the story bristled in taking it as a fact, but when it is learned that the promoters were forced to guarantee the eight boxers $5000 and the total receipts were less than $5500, of course the matter is seen in a different and clearer light. The all-star bill shows conclusively that a larger crowd will flock to see three or four prelates and one bang-up final bout than four so-called star engagements. It takes a Kloby to pack the Cuddy arena and his drawing power waned and slumped after his disastrous misstep with Dundee.

Textile and Athletics
Never in the history of the school has so much time been devoted to athletics as at Textile this year. Heretofore, football and baseball were crammed in between and listless teams were the result. But this year things are different and the football men are being given plenty of opportunity for practice. Baseball will go out at the end of the season, and several college teams will appear on the schedule. How about basketball? That used to be a major sport at the school, and no Lowell person will ever forget the basketball team, with Walker, McDonald, "Spot" Gay and "Hole" Parr. That was a basketball quintet which perhaps has never been equaled in college ranks in the country, bar none.

GRAND DUCHESS AND PRINCE TO MARRY

LUXEMBOURG, Tuesday, Oct. 29.—Grand Duchess Charlotte of Luxembourg and Prince Felix of Bourbon-Parma will be married here on Nov. 6 by Bishop Micotra, papal nuncio.

Prince Felix was born at Schwarzenau, Sept. 28, 1893. Unlike his brothers, Sixtus and Xavier, who served in the Belgian army, he entered the Austrian service, although he declared at the beginning of hostilities he would refuse to fight against the French. Owing to Prince Felix's war service, there was some hostility to his marriage to Grand Duchess Charlotte, but the latter declared it was a love match and that she would wed no other. The people of Luxembourg subsequently acquiesced in this view.

INSURGENTS GAIN IN KUBAN TERRITORY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Insurgent forces in the Kuban territory on the northwestern side of the Caucasian mountains making common cause with the Kuban Cossacks, have taken from the forces of General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader, the Black Sea port of Novorossiysk and occupied the city of Stavropol, according to despatches received today by the Ukrainian mission.

"There is every reason to believe," the despatches assert, "that in a very short time the insurgents will clear the whole Kuban territory of Denikine's so-called volunteer troops."

TOWN MEETING

Tyngsboro to Vote on Trolley Line Question

Tyngsboro will hold a special town meeting next Monday night, Nov. 3, to vote on the question of retaining the trolley line between the town and North Chelmsford, which is scheduled to go out of existence Nov. 1 unless the town expresses a willingness to make up the deficit in operation claimed by the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co.

Some weeks ago the company delivered an ultimatum to the Tyngsboro board of selectmen, in the form of a letter, which stated that service between the town and North Chelmsford did not pay and would be abandoned on Nov. 1 unless the town people came to the aid of the road and furnished sufficient money to allow the line to at least pay for its operation. The question will be put to the voters to decide.

As the special meeting will not be held until the 3rd and the ultimatum named the 1st as the day operation of the line would cease, it is fair to assume that the town will be without service during the interim, but no

Pickpocket Fined

Fines of $100 each were imposed in the cases of Harry Lacker of Boston, George W. Davis of Everett and Jess. Miller of Boston, the three alleged professional pickpockets who were arrested in Merrimack square Oct. 19 by Lieut. Maher and Sergt. Dwyer on the charge of attempted larceny. All three pleaded guilty this morning and lost no time in coming across with the ante prescribed by Judge Enright. They bade a cordial good bye to Lt. Maher and Sergt. Dwyer before they left for parts unknown.

When arrested Lacker described himself as a barber at one of the Boston hotels, while Davis and Miller gave their occupations as storekeeper and advertising solicitor respectively. Although the police admit that the three are a most gentlemanly trio—in fact they were arrayed in the very height of fashion this morning—said police assert that each has a long and varied record, and are well known to the police from Boston to Frlisco.

Cruelty to Cow

Found guilty of cruelty to a cow, Max Cohen of Dracut was fined $25. It was alleged that Cohen had beaten a cow—his own property—over the head with a large hoe on the after-

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Stocks shared in the opening of today's stock market being favorably influenced by the quarterly statement of the U. S. Steel corporation. U. S. Steel rose only a point, but advances in allied stocks, notably Republic, Lackawanna and Bethlehem were more extensive. General Motors, the recent favorite, gained four points at the outset, affiliated stocks rising one to two, while leading arguments advanced two to three points. Food, shipping and tobacco shares also participated substantially in the advance.

The more extensive gains of the early trading included Crucible and Republic Steels at 3 1/2 points, Republic at 1 1/2, Lackawanna at 1 1/2, American Sugar 3 1/2, Cuban American 1 1/2, and Worthington Pump 1 1/2. Profit taking caused the usual reaction of 1 to 3 points, the sell-off being, however, Texas, and the sugar group making material additions to the gains of the morning. Republic and U. S. Steel also reflected the advance.

Trading in stocks today was governed by such conflicting influences as better industrial conditions and tight money. Sales approximated 1,150,000 shares.

Shipments had a brisk advance in the last hour, but the general list suffered a temporary reaction of 2 to 10 points, the break being coincident with the money's rise to 12 per cent. The closing was firm.

TEST WAR-TIME PROHIBITION ACT

Three Suits in Equity in Behalf of R. R. Brewing Corporations Filed

First Move of N. Y. Dealers to Test Constitutionality Made Today

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 29.—Three suits in equity were filed in the United States court for the district of Rhode Island in this city today in behalf of three large brewing corporations to test the constitutionality of the national prohibition act and asking an injunction to restrain the defendants from prosecuting these concerns or their agents or interfering with the business or affairs of the firms.

The plaintiffs are the James Hanley Brewing Co. and the Providence Brewing Co. of this city, and the Narragansett Brewing Co. of Cranston. The suits are filed against Harvey A. Baker and George F. O'Shaunessy, United States district attorney and collector of internal revenue, respectively, for the district of Rhode Island.

The bill of complaint filed by counsel for each plaintiff avers that their property is being taken for public use without compensation and without due process of law and that congress has exceeded its legislative power in passing the aforesaid national prohibition act.

The three plaintiff corporations employ upwards of 500 persons to whom there is paid annually in wages $1,000,000 or more. The capital stock of the three concerns is $2,700,000, while the good will is valued at an aggregate of $2,700,000. The value of the property that has been taken under the act aggregates $5,000,000, while the goods on hand in the possession of the concerns is estimated at $1,000,000.

N. Y. Dealers Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The first move of New York liquor dealers to test the constitutionality of the war time prohibition law since the passage of the enforcement act over the president's veto, was made today by filing of suits in federal district court against William H. Edwards, collector of the second internal revenue district here, A West Broadway liquor wholesaler brought the action, alleging the war time prohibition law to be void and illegal.

In the meantime the majority of the saloons throughout Greater New York were open as usual today and those who knew the countersign were able to get as exhilarated as their thoughts would permit.

A proposition to ignore the law will be considered at a meeting of the liquor dealers on Friday, it was announced by their counsel. The president's veto of the bill and the ending of a federal district judge at Louisville, that the war time law was "unconstitutional" will be the basis for possible action to ignore enforcement measures, it was said.

At the offices of the Hotel Association of New York, the secretary declared he believed all drinks would be cut out by hotels, which he declared were doing a good room and restaurant business.

Colonel Daniel L. Porter, commanding the prohibition law enforcers, announced that he had received word from Washington to "do his duty." He said that prosecutions for violation of the law would be carried forward as fast as possible.

TREATY AMENDMENT

End of Senate Battle Over 46 Proposed Changes in Sight Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The end of the senate battle over the 46 amendments written into the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee seemed in sight today, leaders hoping that a vote on the last of the group could be taken today or tomorrow. The amendment was presented by Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire and would exclude all of the British dominions from voting in any League of Nations controversy to which one of them was a party.

A subject not touched on by the committee was injected into the fight today by Senator Gore, democrat, Oklahoma, who presented an amendment to article 12 proposing that under the league, no nation would go to war "until an advisory vote of the people shall have been taken" as an additional condition after arbitration had failed.

The debate centered during much of the session around the treaty's provision for an international labor organization. Efforts to alter it are to be made by several senators.

Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, assailed the labor provision as undemocratic and perilous to American labor interests. Instead of giving labor a "new charter of rights" as President Wilson had contended, he said, "it would perpetuate the wrong and injustice in the present relation existing between labor and capital."

Samuel Gompers and other American delegates had protested against many provisions at Paris, he said, but had been "beaten on every important point."

BIG IMPROVEMENT IN PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—President Wilson's improvement has reached a point where his physicians have decided to issue no more daily bulletins. This was announced today in the following statement:

"The president's improvement steadily continues. He is eating, sleeping, digesting and assimilating well. His present improvement has now reached a point where it is not considered necessary to issue daily bulletins. The people of the country will be promptly advised of any change in his condition."

During the morning, some executive business was laid before the president.

$50.00 COUNTERFEIT BILL

Lowell banks have posted a notice relative to the circulation of a $50.00 counterfeit bill, a federal reserve note, series of 1914, No. A72230A. It carries a picture of Grant and included in its imperfections, though it is said to be a very clever counterfeit, is the absence of a mast on ship appearing thereon.

SWITZERLAND COUNCIL

Satisfaction With Result of Election Expressed by Bourgeoisie Press

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 29.—Satisfaction with the results of the elections to the national council, which show only 39 socialists chosen on the final count, is expressed by the bourgeois press today. The final results show that the council, with a total of 182 members, will be made up as follows: Radical democrats, 63; Catholics, 53; socialists, 39; the new peasant party, 27; liberal democrats, 7; eastern Swiss democrats, 1; Grisons, 3; progressive bourgeois, 1; evangelists, 1.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARIES CONVENTION CLOSES

The second and final day of the convention of women's auxiliaries of Massachusetts and Rhode Island found the delegates again in session at St. Anne's parish house and a list of notable speakers were on hand to discuss various phases of the work of the auxiliaries.

The speakers at this morning's session included Mrs. A. W. Maxwell of Amesbury, Mrs. Frank H. Stone of Melrose, Mrs. Frank Hawley of Cambridge, Mrs. George A. Brown of Everett and Mrs. W. G. Webster of Everett.

The final session of the conference was held this afternoon and opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. A. G. Archibald. Among the speakers at this session were Mrs. Frank Livingston of Fall River and Rev. Charles E. Keith. The conference came to a close late in the afternoon.

Yesterday's Speakers

The speakers at yesterday afternoon's session included H. C. Dudley of Springfield, whose topic was "Country Work—To the Boundary Limits," J. H. Richter, director of boys' work in the Boston Y.M.C.A., who spoke on "Our Most Prominent Citizens—The Boys," and Mrs. Lucien Ames Mead whose topic was "The World Must Carry On—What?"

At the evening session the speaker was Rev. J. Franklin Knotts, D.D., vice chancellor of the American University at Washington, D. C.

The following officers were elected at yesterday's session:

President, Mrs. H. W. Clark of North Adams.

Vice presidents—Mrs. A. W. Garland of Newburyport, Mrs. Chester A. Pratt of Melrose, Mrs. Albert C. Brown of Ellensburg.

Secretary, Mrs. Arthur J. B. Lindson of Woonsocket, R. I.

Business committee—Mrs. F. A. Bowen of Lowell, chairman; Mrs. L. E. Moore of Newton, Mrs. Otis W. Butler of Lowell.

Resolutions committee—Mrs. H. L. Gulek of Worcester, chairman; Mrs. H. L. Moore and Mrs. F. H. Sawyer of Worcester.

Nominating committee—Mrs. T. A. West of Newton, chairman; Mrs. J. W. M. Clark of Athol, Mrs. H. R. White of Fall River.

BIG THINGS WOMEN ARE DOING NOW

American ways of cooking are under observation. Miss Chien Takamori, a teacher in the Hiroshima School for girls in Tokyo, Japan, is visiting the United States for the sole purpose of learning a la "American" methods of cooking, which she will teach to her Japanese pupils when she returns to Tokyo.

Frau Schuchardt, wife of a Steinberg saloonkeeper, has been elected mayor of Steinberg—Germany's first woman mayor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Demarest has been president of the state board in Pretty Prairie, Kas., for seventeen years. In that time she has never employed a lawyer, and has never experienced a loss.

Clubs organized in the south by the state colleges and the department of agriculture, have made it possible for southern women, who are raising poultry, to market their produce co-operatively. Last year they sold more than half a million eggs in this way.

BELGIAN ROYAL PARTY

ACTIVE AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—With a list of engagements that filled every hour of the day, King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Crown Prince Leopold started early today upon the activities of the second day's visit of the Belgian royal family to Washington.

The day's program included a journey to Mount Vernon on the Mayflower, the presidential yacht, accompanied by Vice President Marshall and other high officials.

During the morning the king and queen and the Duke of Brabant were to visit the National Red Cross headquarters to express the gratitude of the Belgian people for the service rendered by the Red Cross during the war. The remainder of the forenoon was to be devoted to visits to the bureau of engraving and the navy yard with an hour set apart for which engagements King Albert might care to accept.

A formal dinner in honor of the distinguished visitors will be given tonight by the secretary of state.

ARMY STORE WILL SELL BLANKETS

The managers of the army store in the Bigelow-Hartford building in Market street expect to place blankets on sale tomorrow morning. Four large truck loads of goods were received this afternoon and it is believed that a consignment of army blankets is included in the new stock.

Business was even brisker today than on yesterday when the store opened and the original stock was very nearly demolished this noon. Evaporated apples, farina, more soap-slick candy, pickles and other articles have been added to the well varied stock and more will be obtained from time to time.

It has been decided to keep the store open every week day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., except on Saturdays when the doors will open at 12 noon, and business will continue until 3 o'clock in the evening. Sergt. Maguire and Patrolman Kenney again were on duty at the store today and kept the crowd in motion.

ROW 80 MILES TO SAFETY

NANTUCKET, Oct. 29.—Three fishermen, members of the crew of the Boston schooner Reading, rowed 80 miles through a stormy night to safety here today, and reported that three others of the crew were adrift somewhere off shore. The men who landed were nearly exhausted. They had been rowing since yesterday morning when their dory and another became separated from the Reading in thick weather. The other dory accompanied them until last night when, tossed by the storm, they lost sight of it. The men who reached here were T. Morrissey, D. Ni-bore and Reuben Dudrow.

KAISER'S NEW HOME UNLUCKY

DOORN, Holland, Oct. 27.—(By the Associated Press) There is a superstition at Doorn, which, because of incomplete records, is somewhat difficult to hear out, that the house at Doorn recently purchased by the former kaiser, is unlucky for its male occupants. It is said that the house has generally been occupied by widows, the men having died after a few years residence. The Baroness Van Heemstra, who sold the house to the kaiser, was a widow.

ARMY AIR SERVICE

Congressional Committee Conducting Probe Attacked By John D. Ryan

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The congressional committee which is investigating the army air service was vigorously attacked today by John D. Ryan, formerly director of aircraft production, for having made intimations against "persons whose services had been of value to the government" on the evidence of "soreheads, who failed to obtain government contracts."

Mr. Ryan told the committee that the map of the spruce district it had in evidence was prepared for campaign purposes. Asked to explain how, he pointed to a large caption "35 mile government railroad costing $1,000,000" and said no official map would have such wording. The caption was not quite true, he argued.

FUNERAL VEHICLES IN JITNEY CLASS

Funeral vehicles, unless owned by those using them, are in the jitney class and subject to taxation, according to the latest ruling of the treasury department declaring such vehicles to be taxable as passenger automobiles rented for hire. Which means that Lowell's undertakers will soon be called upon by the internal revenue department to ante up a tax of $10 or $20 if they have rented any autos for funeral purposes since the first of the year. Funeral hearses or ambulances are not included in this ruling, which refers only to vehicles used to carry bearers and mourners.

The motor vehicle tax is $10 a year for autos seating from two to seven persons and $20 a year for all seating over seven. All passenger autos rented for hire will also be taxed, and the internal revenue department will see to it that this regulation is lived up to.

BIG LABOR CONFERENCE

Sec. Wilson Speaking in Name of President Formally Opens Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Speaking "on behalf of the people of the United States and in the name of President Wilson," Secretary of Labor Wilson formally opened today the international labor conference provided for in the treaty of Versailles.

Welcoming delegates from all parts of the world, the secretary declared that the conference represented the first concerted effort in history to deal with labor problems progressively.

Representatives of 36 countries, seated in alphabetical order in a large circle in the same hall of the Pan-American building where the national industrial conference came to grief, heard the secretary's address, which was translated into French when he had finished.

Ambassadors and ministers of many nations occupied places of honor on either side of the chairman's platform.

While the United States was not represented in the list of delegates by reason of congressional prohibition, a number of officials were present as guests of the League of Nations. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and a member of the conference organizing committee, also was present.

Germany and Austria also were without delegates, but their representatives are now en route and the question of seating them will be for the conference to decide.

Countries having delegates present today included Great Britain, France, Japan, Italy, Belgium, Spain, Holland, Sweden, Canada, China, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, Denmark, Greece, Norway and practically all of the Central and South American republics.
